

BAPTIST HEADS TO WAGE FIGHT ON EVOLUTION

Fundamentalist Leaders of Northern Church Will Demand Declaration Against Theory.

ATTACK FOSDICK AND ROCKEFELLER

Dr. John Roach Stratton Declares These Two Men Are Working To Overthrow Church.

BY THOMAS L. STOKES.
Washington, May 24.—Evolution will be the center of what promises to be a bitter fight between modernists and fundamentalists of the northern Baptist church, which opens its annual convention here Tuesday.

Fundamentalists will take their fight to the floor of the convention for a declaration against evolution, similar to that adopted by the southern Baptists several days ago. So deep is the feeling evidenced by fundamentalists at the preliminary meetings here that an open schism within the organization is predicted in some quarters.

The leaders of the modernists, Rev.
Harry Emerson Fosdick and John D.
Rockefeller, Jr., who attends Fosdick's Park Avenue Baptist church in New York, were scored by fundamentalist speakers who came here beforehand for the meeting of the Baptist Bible Union of North America, a fundamentalist organization. The campaign against the modernists was mapped out at this meeting, which has lasted several days.

Unsettled Modernists.
The first step in this campaign will be an effort to unseat modernist delegates representing the liberal wing of the church, centered in the Park Avenue church. The fundamentalists closed their ranks for the battle Monday with a resolution unanimously adopted by the Bible union urging the fundamentalists band together against any compromise with modernists and "purge the church" of modernist elements. Other resolutions will be taken before the convention, which probably will provoke controversy.

Modernists arriving Monday for the convention, watching the final session of the Bible union from the wings, claimed that the demands of the hide-bound fundamentalists would meet with a cool reception from the convention, saying that liberal elements will be in the majority.

The vigorous and denunciatory speeches of the fundamentalists, however, indicated there will be a bitter fight.

Fosdick and Rockefeller are working together to overthrow the Baptist church, according to Dr. John Roach Stratton, of New York, leader of the fundamentalists. He described charity prize fights and charity balls in New York, which he said were sponsored by modernist churches and endorsed by modernist preachers. As a climax, he declared that Rockefeller had been the "leading patron" of a charity ball, which was under the religious offices and with the full connivance of modernist preachers, at which there were the usual "styles of undress" and which was featured by a number staged by Broadway chorus girls.

"Shame!" someone in his audience shouted.

"A book could be written about the leadership of modernist preachers in worldliness and luxury," Stratton said.
"Destruction is coming through these things. The faith of the people is being destroyed."

Literary Interpretation.
Stratton and other speakers demanded a literal interpretation of the Bible as necessary to preserve the church teaching of evolution.

"Modernism is positively anti-Christian, and anti-religious," Stratton said.
He described Fosdick as "the most

Demolition Work On W. & A. Ground Ordered Stopped

Attorney General of Georgia Presents Petition to Judge Thompson in Knoxville Court.

HEARING IS SET FOR JUNE THIRD

Tennessee Magistrate Directs City Attorney of Chattanooga to Discontinue Destruction.

Knoxville, Tenn., May 24.—Destruction of buildings on Chattanooga property owned and leased out by the state of Georgia to the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad, was abruptly ordered halted tonight by directions issued by Judge Thompson, of the Tennessee court of appeals, to the city attorney of Chattanooga for discontinuance of the strong-arm methods with which the Tennessee community twice has assailed structures on this Georgia property.

Judge Thompson issued the order for discontinuance of destruction to the city attorney when a petition for superedeas was presented to the magistrate here tonight by George M. Napierz, attorney general of Georgia.
Judge Thompson set the hearing for June 3.

CHATTANOOGA AGREES TO JUDGE'S ORDER.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 24.—(AP)— Chattanooga, through Attorney Byrom
K. Tatum, agreed today to an order to stop work extending Broad and Eleventh streets through property owned by the state of Georgia on condition that the Tennessee court of appeals would not grant a plea for writ of superedeas without a public hearing.

Chattanooga counsel requested Judge Neal Thompson not to grant a writ of superedeas without hearing the city's side of the case and prayed for a hearing tomorrow. In order to suit the convenience of attorneys of both sides,
the hearing was set for Thursday,
June 2.

Attorney General George M. Napierz went to Knoxville, Tenn., Monday to file the petition for superedeas in the Tennessee court of appeals to restrain the city of Chattanooga from making further attempts to open Broad street and Eleventh street in that city over state-owned property, following a conference in Chattanooga Monday morning with attorneys assisting the state of Georgia in its case.

Napierz Confident.
Prior to his departure, Attorney General Napierz expressed confidence that he would succeed in obtaining a superedeas from the court of appeals on the same grounds in which a similar order recently was granted by the supreme court of that state.

The supreme court Saturday upheld a contention of the city of Chattanooga that jurisdiction in the case lay with the court of appeals instead of with the supreme court. In making this decision the supreme court vacated its order and city officials of Chattanooga immediately resumed work tearing down buildings on the property of the state of Georgia. The demolition halted by the superedeas order first granted by the supreme court, began again.

Might Lose Rights.
The state of Georgia, which leased its property to the Nashville-Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad for a term of fifty years, is seeking to have the state's rights at the end of this lease preserved. It is contended by the state of Georgia that these rights will be lost if the street is opened up without any agreements to this effect between the city and the state of Georgia.

In dispatches from Chattanooga it was stated Monday that officials of that city were continuing their work of tearing down buildings to make the necessary openings for the proposed street extensions.

BOYLES' FACE CHARGES MADE BY MOBILE BAR

Association Takes Action Against Federal District Attorney After Sensational Meeting.

PROBE IS STARTED BY GRAND JURORS

Judge Serves Order On Boyles To Show Cause
Why He Should Not Be Barred From Court.

Mobile, Ala., May 24.—(AP)—With instructions from Federal Judge Robert T. Ervin to investigate the official record of Attorney Boyles, United States district attorney at Mobile, a federal grand jury went into session here today. The jury was impaneled this morning and Judge Ervin instructed the jurors to consider Boyles' case and make report on it before transacting other business. More than 20 witnesses were examined by the grand jury before adjournment.

Boyles, who uncovered the liquor ring sensations at Mobile two years ago, was recently rejected by the United States senate for reappointment. Among those testifying against him at the senate hearing was Judge Ervin, also J. W. John, assistant United States attorney here.

John Placed in Charge.

Before the grand jury convened today, Judge Ervin served an order on Boyles to show cause why he should not be barred from the courtroom. This was made returnable June 2. Later in the day, when the grand jury convened, Judge Ervin placed J. W. John in charge of the prosecution. John, since he testified in the Boyles hearing at Washington, has been dismissed from the government service by the department of justice, but was called back into service by Judge Ervin today.

The Mobile Bar association, after a session lasting two hours and a half, decided by a vote of 24 to 17 to prefer charges against Boyles with the state commission of the Alabama Bar association. The charges are not specified, but are in connection with statements made at the recent federal senate investigation. The session of the bar association was attended by a crowd that overflowed the largest room at the courthouse, who were later ejected on account of the applause by both Boyles and anti-Boyles factions, and another session held behind closed doors with members of the press admitted.

Attorney G. L. Smith charged that Boyles had recommended a man convicted of bootlegging for the position of state prohibition enforcement officer. Boyles replied that the statement was a "lie." H. H. Smith, attorney, and J. H. Smith, went toward Boyles and was restrained by other attorneys in the room.

Boyles' Charges.

Boyles charged that County Solicitor
B. B. Chamberlain had offered to allow C. C. Ulmer, of Jacksonville, Fla., who carried Roger Wethered, the last noted British amateur, to the last green before the former title-holder could attain his victory.

Elder Mackenzie Loses.
Albert R. Mackenzie, of Washington, D. C., father of Roland Mackenzie, was beaten by A. Stanley Lunt, of Moseley, and others among the American entrants suffered defeat in the first round.

The Pittsburgh veteran, W. C.
Fownes, had trouble in the bunkers, which cost him his match with James Cowan, of Edinburgh, 3 and 2.

An unfortunate break in the draw now brings Outmet and Von Elm together on Tuesday, and the winner must meet Jess Sweetser, provided the New York youngster gets through his second round match.

The weather was favorable to good golf Monday, but by nightfall was

Visit to Wild Chiapas Land Is Completed

Expedition Headed by Georgian Visited Maya Capital.

BY JAMES A. HOLLOMON.
Proton, Mex., May 24.—(Special).—American members of the Central American Exploration expedition, organized by J. L. Phillips, of Georgia, arrived here by river steamer from Salto de Agua, after having penetrated the wild lands of Chiapas, 100 kilometers farther than white man ever trod before.

The expedition dismissed its mule pack and army of Indian porters at Salto de Agua, after having literally cut its way across the mountains to Palenque, the buried capital of the Maya nation that triumphed in culture before the Christian era.

Led by Maximilian Dorenborg, pioneer explorer and developer, the last day's ride covered 90 kilometers by mule. With 100 men to feed the expedition was amply supplied in jungle camps with game including wild turkey, pheasant, parrots, wild boar and jaguar.

NEW ORDER BY PRESIDENT TO ENFORCE PROHIBITION RULED LEGAL BY SARGENT

COTTON BROKERS
TO BE PROSECUTED,
BOYKIN DECLARES

Will Proceed at Once With Numerous Indict- ments Awaiting Action of U. S. Supreme Court.

EFFORT TO ENJOIN
STATE LAW DENIED

Georgia Laws Govern Op- eration Despite Claim of Federal Cotton Futures Act Protection.

Brokers indicted by the Fulton county grand jury for alleged violation of the Georgia anti-bucket shop law probably will be placed on trial within the next week or so, it was announced Monday from Solicitor General John A. Boykin's office following information that the United States supreme court had refused to uphold the brokers in their efforts to restrain enforcement of the statute.

The Charles E. Fenner case, which was taken before the supreme court and decided against the brokers Monday, was a "test case." It is pointed out that the result is slated to determine the manner in which other brokers will be treated regarding the cotton futures law.

Dispatches from Washington stated that the effort on the part of Fenner and other brokers to enjoin enforcement of the law on the ground that they were operating exclusively under the United States cotton futures act was denied.

A plea for temporary injunction to restrain Solicitor General John A.
Boykin from proceeding before the Fulton county grand jury in an effort to indict Atlanta brokers for alleged violation of the cotton futures act was denied on December 11, 1924, by Judge Samuel Sibley in federal district court here.

Following the denial, the grand jury Sibley's order contained a provision that should the indictments be returned, an injunction could be sought to prevent trial of the cases until the validity of the Georgia law was passed on by the higher court.

Case Is Appealed.

The injunction was granted, and the case was then carried to the circuit court of appeals and thence to the supreme court. Matters of the law involved in the case were the question whether the solicitor general had constructed the Georgia statutes correctly in obtaining the indictments, and if so, whether the indictments were validly issued under the interstate commerce act.

The brokers sought the injunction on the grounds that their business was "useful, lawful and open," and that it did not come under the bucket shop laws.

EVANGELINE BOOTH SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

New York, May 24.—(AP)—Improvement was reported today in the condition of Commander Evangeline Booth, of the Salvation Army, who is confined in hospital at her home near White Plains.

"Commander Booth's general condition remains grave," said Dr. Walter Clark, chief of the attending physician.
"However, the relapse of the last few days has responded splendidly to treatment."

PARKING CHANGES UNDER YORK PLAN EFFECTIVE TODAY

Beginning this morning police officers will begin rigid enforcement of the York through-traffic plan on four streets, it was announced Monday by Councilman Harry York, author of the parking plan, which is expected to relieve traffic congestion in downtown Atlanta.

The four streets on which provisions of the ordinance passed by city council will take effect are Mitchell, from Broad to Whitehall; Whitehall and Peachtree from Mitchell to Ellis street, and Broad street from Mitchell to Peachtree.

The south side of Mitchell, the west side of Broad and the east side of Whitehall and Peachtree are non-parking, while automobiles may park for an unlimited time on the opposite sides of these streets, according to the plan.

Large signs have been placed on the non-parking sides of the streets on which the plan will be placed in operation today, and police officials have announced that they will begin a rigid enforcement program from the start.
The plan will be placed in operation in other areas as soon as signs are placed, Mr. York said.

Solomon's Only "Rival" Married 50 Women, Claim

ALSO ACCUSED OF $1,000,000 SWINDLE

Philadelphia, May 24.—With the arrest here Monday of Robert Whitman, alias Herman Kruger, who has also styled himself as lord and baron, police believe they have captured Solomon's only rival and one of the most notorious swindlers in the United States.

Philadelphia authorities estimated that Whitman, whose real name is believed to be John Victor Weidenmeier, has married about 50 women in connection with his gem swindling operations.

His loot may exceed a million dollars, they said.

This 38-year-old charmer, with the polished manners of a nobleman—he has called himself Lord Beaverbrook and Baron Beaverbrook—the trenchant wit of an Oscar Wilde and the thieving proclivities of a Jesse James, according to police, has revealed that he is a Viennese, a graduate of the University of Vienna and the husband of an operatic star whose name he has not disclosed.

His capture in a downtown hotel in connection with the theft of $120,- 000 in diamonds from Mrs. Rose Bur-ken, of New York, was due to the eagle eye of the woman's son-in-law, Whitman, or Weidenmeier, victimized prominent women by marrying them after whirlwind courtships, the police say.

When accepted, he suddenly was "called away" on urgent business and suggested to his newly-won wife that she deposit her jewels in a safe deposit box.

Jewels and husband disappeared simultaneously and stayed away.

The mystery surrounding the dashing modern Solomon's life was further heightened Monday when a woman, who had been living with Whitman engaged John R. K. Scott, a prominent criminal lawyer, to defend him.

The attorney's first move was to seek a writ of habeas corpus.

Whitman was arrested in St. Louis in 1925, where he is said to have eloped with a Mrs. Leonard Luffman, widow of a wealthy Chicagoan. After being arrested for swindling, the police say he jumped $25,000 bail.

In San Francisco, Detroit, Washington, Buffalo and other places he is said to have worked the same game.
In Washington he victimized Mrs.
Charles Martin, who is said to have lost several thousand dollars because of his swindling operations.

Mrs. Esther Weiler Bpock, a Chicago violinist, sued for annulment of her marriage to Arthur Bpock in 1924.
From rogues' gallery photographs, she identified Whitman as the Brooks whom she married.

BEAVERS SLATED TO RESUME POST SOMETIME TODAY

Deposed for Two Years, Former Police Chief Is Ready To Take His Office Again.

James L. Beavers, ousted from his post as chief of police in April, 1924, is expected to be chief again before another nightfall.

This announcement followed a ruling Monday by City Attorney James L. Mayson to the effect that when the remittitur of the appellate court of Georgia reaches Fulton county court officials Beavers will be automatically reinstated as head of the department.

Chief Beavers expressed gratification at Mr. Mayson's ruling Monday night and said he was ready to assume his duties as soon as the court order is received.

Mr. Mayson gave this opinion to Alderman William B. Hartfield, chairman of the police committee, when Mr. Hartfield asked for the law on this specific point.

"There is no obstacle in the way of Beavers' return so far as I know," Mr. Hartfield stated, following the ruling of the city attorney. "The committee only named Acting Assistant Chief C. P. Connally as temporary chief to fill the interim due to the delay in getting the remittitur from the high court and the retirement of Acting Chief E. L. Jett."

Temporary Plans.
"It was not the intention of the committee, so far as I know, to name either of the temporary officials for any specified time but only until the high court order was handed down."

Captain A. J. Holcomb was appointed acting assistant chief at the

OPINION IS GIVEN AFTER HOT FIGHT ON SENATE FLOOR

Both Dry and Wet Solds Attack Executive Order For Widely Divergent Reasons.

Dry Executives State Emphatically That Order Will Not Be Enforced
Unless States Desire.

MELLON REGRETS INVOKING ORDER

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.

Washington, May 24.—Attorney General Sargent has come to the rescue of the much-criticized executive order authorizing appointment of local officers as federal dry agents with an official opinion that it is constitutional and legal.

"There does not appear to be any federal law, constitutional or statutory incapacitating a citizen from holding a federal and state office at the same time," the attorney general stated. "Concurrent action of national and state agencies is contemplated and authorized by the national prohibition act."

This legal opinion from the department of justice was the only resolving word offered in behalf of the much-condemned order. Monday, it was denounced at the capitol and by officials who had sponsored it were frankly apologetic and troubled.
While they are not sufficiently abject to ask that it be revoked, they made gallant efforts to assure the country that the application of the new powers will be extremely limited.

Admits Mistake.
Secretary of the Treasury Mellon admitted Monday that if he had anticipated the national outburst of criticism that the order has received he never would have recommended
it. However he sees no use in revoking it because he does not think it is doing any harm in its present status.

Mellon and Andrews both stated emphatically that the authority under the order will be exercised on a most modest scale, that no attempt will be made to introduce it where it is unwelcome and that it cannot infringe on state rights.

A resolution asking the senate judiciary committee to investigate the legality of the order was offered in the senate by Senator King, Utah, democrat. Senator Robinson, Arkansas, democratic floor leader, denounced the order as a colossal blunder, a blow at prohibition though perhaps not intended, and destructive of state rights and the civil service principle.
Senator Edges, New Jersey, republican, denounced the order and offered sev-

Painter of "Path of Moon" To Address Art Association

GEORGE ELMER BROWNE HERE

George Elmer Browne, one of the foremost living American artists, will address the Atlanta Art Association at its annual meeting, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock in the directors' room of the Fulton National bank.

Mr. Browne is well known in Atlanta, both by reason of the exhibition here of several of his works by the Grand Central Art Galleries, and because one of the finest products of his brush, "The Path of the Moon," is owned by the local art association.

It was purchased as a memorial to Mrs. Belle Newman Howard and now hangs at the Biltmore hotel. When the Atlanta museum, the result of the gift to the association of her beautiful residence by Mrs. J. M. High, is opened, it will be transferred there, as one of the score or so of pictures which will form the nucleus for the great collection which is planned for the future.

Mr. Browne will arrive in Atlanta at noon today, from Birmingham.

RENUMBERING OF CITY RAPIDLY PROGRESSING

Coincident with announcement Monday by R. A. Torres, secretary of the city planning commission, that half of Atlanta today will be known by the new number system, the commission Monday afternoon began laying plans to speed up numbering in the other half of the city in order that the entire city may be renumbered by September 1.

Edwin K. Large, postmaster, and others interested in the project, appeared before the commission, which met with Mayor Walter A. Sims and asked that an additional appropriation be made with which to carry out the work more speedily.

Mr. Torres stated that beginning this morning the new street numerals will be put into effect in the southeastern section of the city. Several weeks ago the southwestern section was renumbered.

The southeastern section includes portions of Kirkwood, the Ormeau park territory, Grant, and adjacent sections. The southwestern section includes West End, Oakland City and adjacent territory.

Work will begin at once on number changes in the northern section, and Mr. Large and his associates Monday asked that additional forces be placed in the field to begin work in the northwest section so that Atlanta will be "completely renumbered in accordance with the commission's plan by September 1."

VIRGINIA-CAROLINA FIRM IS REORGANIZED

Permanent reorganization of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical company has been effected, it was announced Monday and with it comes news that J. C. Devillies, who has been western sales manager, with offices at Cincinnati, will become southeastern sales manager, with headquarters in Atlanta.

He succeeds J. C. Carroll, who has been a resident of Atlanta for the last five years, and who has been promoted to the office of general sales manager, with headquarters in Richmond.

The name of the company, whose assets are listed at more than $400,000, have been changed to Virginia-Carolina Chemical corporation.

Charles G. Wilson, formerly of Atlanta, but now of Richmond, Va., who was president of the old organization, has been elected president of the new corporation. At a meeting of the reorganization in New York, a dividend of 7 per cent was declared by directors—a stock dividend of $7 a share, on the prior preferred stock, covering the period of accumulations from June 1, 1925, to June 1, 1926. This will be payable July 1 to stockholders.

Headquarters of the company will be retained in Richmond, Va.

New directors added to the board at the reorganization meeting, all of whom are of Richmond, are Charles G. Wilson, Coleman Wortham, Thomas B. McAdams, John M. Miller, Jr., Scott Buford, and others.

Members of the board, all of New York, are Theodore G. Smith, James H. Perkins, S. H. Miller, Bertram C. Miller, Harry Prosser, and C. T. Strahan. Officers of the company will include H. Walker Wallace, formerly of Augusta, Ga., vice president; Spencer L. Carter, vice president; G. A. Holderness, vice president and treasurer, and P. C. Smith, secretary.

PEABODY SCHOOL FUND CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED

Headed by J. O. Martin, state supervisor of schools in the state department of education, an regional director, alumni of the Georgia Peabody College for Teachers, of Nashville, Tenn., are now conducting a campaign among themselves to raise this state's part of the $200,000 fund sought for the expansion of the college.

It is planned, according to leaders in the campaign to raise the $200,000 among alumni, ex-students and philanthropists, and to devote it to investigation and research in educational administration and the science of teaching, in order to discover and apply better means and methods of teaching the 25,000,000 boys and girls now in the public schools of this country. Extensive expansion of the physical equipment of the institution at Nashville, in order to permit this increased service, is also planned.

In a recent letter to Dr. Payne, president of Peabody college, President Coolidge said:

"George Peabody was a pioneer. He blazed the trail. He pointed out the path. And already there have been many benefactors of our country who have been animated by his spirit and captured by his vision. It is a dynasty of national service, which, let us hope, will never fail. For in this continuous enrichment of education, there is embodied the true sovereignty of a free people."

Rev. George W. Duval Dies After Rounding Out 50 Years' Service

News has been received here of the death of Rev. George W. Duval, superannuated minister of the North Georgia Methodist conference, at 10 o'clock this morning after a brief illness at the home of his son in Social Circle, Ga. The funeral service will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Methodist church in Social Circle and interment will follow. Admitted into the North Georgia conference in the same class with Bishop Warren A. Chandler, the beloved minister was in the active ministry for 50 years. In November, 1925, at the conclusion of his half-century of service, he was given the superannuation relating to the time of his death he was 76 years of age.

"Martin Luther" Film Presented Tonight; Rev. Hauff Presides

The Rev. W. E. Hauff, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, well known in Atlanta musical circles as a pianist and composer, will officiate at the organ when the film "Martin Luther" is shown at the Wesley Memorial church tonight. According to Charles M. Kessler, local chairman in charge of the picture.

Historical scenes call for a score of difficult, classic music, appropriate to the reformation period. Mr. Kessler said, expressing himself as being gratified in obtaining a musician of Mr. Hauff's talent and ability. Tickets for the performance will be on sale at Munn's drug store until noon today.

MEMORIAL BIDS TO BE SUBMITTED

Sealed bids on the contract to carve the Confederate memorial central group on Stone Mountain will be submitted to members of the executive committee of the Stone Mountain Memorial association at noon today in the offices of the association in the Grand building.

No list of bidders was made public, but it was understood that several firms have submitted bids for the work.

Work on preliminary details of the project has been carried on steadily, and actual carving will begin by the successful contractor working under direction of Augustus Lukeman, sculptor, as soon as the executive committee is satisfied as to the responsibility of the successful bidder under the lowest and best bid plan.

Married Woman Is Sent to Farm On Liquor Charge

Mrs. A. J. Green, of 47 Nelson street, was found guilty by a jury in the criminal court of Atlanta Monday on a charge of possessing liquor and was sentenced by Judge Jesse M. Wood to serve 10 months at the state prison farm without the alternative of a fine.

The young married woman was tried recently in the criminal court of Atlanta on two other cases of violating the prohibition law and was sentenced to pay a fine of $300 and to serve 12 months in one case and to pay a fine of $200 and serve 12 months in the other case, the terms to be suspended upon payment of the fines.

She was released on bond when she was tried in the third case Monday having appealed the other cases to the higher court. It is expected that the last case also will be appealed.

The case upon which she was tried Monday charged that she possessed one gallon and one pint in cans and one pint and 11 1/2 pints in bottles at her residence, 47 Nelson street, on April 3, when arrested by City Policemen H. C. Newton, O. C. Harper, R. L. Mosley and Deputy Sheriff W. C. Morris.

TO FORM GEORGIA BRANCH OF BRYAN MEMORIAL BODY

A Georgia division of the William Jennings Bryan Memorial association will be organized and plans are now being perfected to complete the state organization which will work in cooperation with the national association, Edgar Watkins, prominent Atlanta attorney and state chairman of the association, announced Monday.

Much progress is being made by Georgia leaders in the movement, Mr. Watkins said, and those interested in a club honoring the great commoner are invited to give suggestions as to furthering the memorial cause.

It is the present plan of the national executive committee to obtain a plot of ground in Washington, D. C., where a suitable memorial could be erected. Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy, is president of the national organization.

NEGRO IS FINED $50 FOR THROWING GLASS

Will Wilson, negro, was found guilty Monday by a jury in the criminal court of Atlanta when arraigned before Judge Jesse M. Wood to answer a charge of throwing glass on a public highway and was fined $50 and sentenced to serve six months on the chain gang, the term to be suspended upon payment of the fine.

According to court attaches, Wilson is alleged August 7, 1925, to have thrown the glass on Houston street, a public highway traversed by automobiles. The charge constitutes a misdemeanor.

STATE WILL PAY PENSIONS ON TIME

For the first time since the state pension laws were adopted, the state is in a position financially to take care of obligations due Confederate veterans at the time such obligations fall due, it developed Monday when a warrant for $485,250 covering the second quarter of the annual amount appropriated for veterans, was turned over to Sam J. Slate, state auditor, for approval. The money will be paid to the veterans through the ordinaries of the state and will be sent to these officials Tuesday and Wednesday.

Money to pay pensions past due veterans for the last four years was

ILL, WOMAN GOES HOME ABOARD GIANT PLANE

With the commander's sick wife aboard, Captain Roscoe Turner's giant Sikorsky airplane hopped off from Candler field at 10:45 o'clock Monday morning on its way to Sheffield, Ala. Aboard the ship were Mrs. Turner's nurse, Miss Margaret Schultz, and Dr. Troy Bivings, to attend Mrs. Turner during the flight.

The flight was arranged after Captain Turner was called to New York on business and did not wish to leave his wife here alone. Mrs. Turner suffered an attack of appendicitis two weeks ago and doctors would not permit her to make the trip from Atlanta to Corinth, Miss., her home, on a train.

Skinny Frail Folks Speedily Gain Weight

The greatest strength-giver and producer of good, healthy flesh in the world is Cod Liver Oil—it's full of vitamins.

But it's nasty stuff—ill-smelling and hard to take, and usually upsets the stomach.

Thank goodness! We don't have to even smell it any more, for now Jacobs' Pharmacy Co., and all druggists are selling McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, sugar-coated, and as easy to take as candy, so that you can get the real Cod Liver Oil in condensed form and get just the same results as with the horrible-smelling liquid.

Men and women, weak, thin and nervous, are urged to put on weight and get back their health and strength with these wonderful tablets.

One woman gained 15 pounds in five weeks and that's going fast enough for anyone.

Only 60 cents for 60 tablets, and if they don't put five pounds of flesh on any thin person in 30 days your druggist is authorized to hand you back the money you paid for it.

"But be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets."—(adv.)

PUBLIC MAY REBUILD DORMITORY AT BERRY

Rome, Ga., May 24.—(Special.)—Benevolently inclined people in all parts of the country through voluntary donations may help to rebuild the new $100,000 dormitory of Berry schools, recently destroyed by fire, it was announced here today.

As a matter of course, the public, familiar with the importance of the work Miss Martha Berry, founder of the schools, has been doing at the big school for poor boys and girls, friends here state, will contribute willingly to restoration of the building, and the disaster may inspire to building on a larger and a better scale, it is claimed.

"If talking on my little plank of faith, hoping and praying that help will come, so that we can replace the building," said Miss Berry. "It was built from a multitude of small gifts and was the result of years of hard work. The boys had taken great care to select native stones of just the proper size and color and we are anxious to replace it with a fireproof structure."

The burned building was the main dormitory of the Foundation school.

Young Woman Dies.

Rome, Ga., May 24.—(Special.)—Miss Gaynelle Bradshaw, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bradshaw, died at their country home near Seesee Sunday afternoon following a long illness.

Miss Bradshaw attended Rome High school and Shorter college and had many friends throughout this section of the state. She had been a devoted member of the First Baptist church since childhood.

She is survived by her parents and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Harry Johnson, Martin H. Bradshaw and Grady Bradshaw, of Rome; Mrs. S. H. Warrick, of Birmingham.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the residence of Mrs. J. E. Sammons, pastor of the First Baptist church, conducted the services. Interment was in Myrtle Hill cemetery.

Court Dismisses Suit in Negro Property Case

Washington, May 24.—(P)—The supreme court today refused to interfere with the practice of white communities in agreeing to bar negroes from buying their property.

In acting upon a case where the owners on a fashionable Washington street had determined among themselves never to permit a negro to occupy, use, lease or purchase any of their property, the court, in an opinion read by Justice Sanford, declined to pass upon the validity of such arrangements on the ground that the controversy presented no question within its jurisdiction. It dismissed the case, leaving in force a decision of the lower courts here which held such agreements were constitutional and valid.

The validity of the covenant between the white property owners was attacked by a woman who had agreed to purchase from one of the owners before the owner had determined she was of negro blood. She contended it was in violation of the fifth, thirteenth and fourteenth amendments to the constitution, but Justice Sanford declared the court could find nothing in any of those amendments to sustain her contention.

The fifth amendment was described by Justice Sanford as a limitation upon the powers of the general government, not directed against the action of individuals. The thirteenth amendment he outlined as denouncing slavery and involuntary servitude but not in other matters protecting the individual rights of persons of the negro race.

As to the contentions raised under the fourteenth amendment, the opinion said it had reference only to state action and not to any action of private individuals.

For these reasons, Justice Sanford said the constitutional amendments cited did not cover such transactions as that complained of and did not bring before the court a question upon which it had jurisdiction to consider its merits.

The decision leaves open to the complainant further proceedings in the lower courts to force the sale provided she can find some other constitutional ground upon which to proceed.

The case had attracted nation-wide attention, especially from a number of cities in which the issue had been fought over locally.

HENRY FORD RAPS 'POWER COMBINE'

Detroit, May 24.—(P)—The "Power combine," which five years ago cried "scrap Muscle Shoals," has changed its cry to "exploit it," declares Henry Ford in an editorial in the June 5 issue of the Dearborn Independent.

Mr. Ford bitterly assails those who have held up development of the Muscle Shoals project on the Tennessee river, declaring "a series of victories by the power combine over agriculture and the national defense constitutes the history to date of that great government waste and peace enterprise."

Muscle Shoals, asserts the editorial, was planted by congress in the geographical heart of civilization to supply munitions of defense in time of war and fertilizer for farms in time of peace. The power combine, it continues, "has been successful until now in defeating both these objectives of congress."

The Ford offer to purchase the Shoals plant saved the government's investment, so that even a small auxiliary plant sold for $3,472,487, declares the editorial.

Behind the cries of "scrap it" and "exploit it" is the determination of the "power combine to keep the economies of Muscle Shoals away from the people," declares the Ford article.

"It has long been accepted by those at Washington who stand for national defense and the production of fertilizer at Muscle Shoals, that no offer except one as good or better than the Ford offer should be considered. The Ford offer was based on the principle of the largest use at the lowest cost. It reduced interest charges to the minimum. It was, in fact, an engineer's proposal, not a banker's proposal."

Those who failed to scrap Muscle Shoals by saying it was "not worth a nickel" are now trying to hamstring the government by loading it with interest-bearing government capital. Either way, it comes to the same thing as far as the establishment of the electro-chemical industry at Muscle Shoals and the production of fertilizer are concerned.

The farmers can go to Chile for their nitrates as in the past, the editorial continues, and the electro-chemical industry can go to Canada or Norway as it has been doing "and the power power of the Tennessee river can go to waste by non-use until the power combine gets ready to exploit its use."

Daggan's Plane Reaches Norfolk As Gas Gives Out

Norfolk, Va., May 24.—(P)—Tired, hungry and with their last drop of gasoline used up in making a landing, Senor Bernardo Daggan, wealthy Argentine sportsman, and two companions, Italian army officers, were safe in port here tonight after a rather adventurous journey from New York, the first leg of their 6,100-mile trip to Buenos Aires by seaplane.

The machine left New York this morning at 7:04 o'clock and all went well despite a head-wind that cut down their speed until the big plane arrived off the eastern shore of Virginia. They ran into the heavy rainstorm shortly before 1 o'clock about 65 miles from their goal, Hampton Roads, and sought the surface of the water for safety.

While waiting for the storm to pass, the pilots examined their supply of gasoline and found that they barely had enough, or not enough, to reach Norfolk. Fearing to resume the flight under such uncertainty, Senor Daggan decided to remain off, Assateague, where the landing was made, in the hope of attracting the attention of some passing craft from which they might replenish their gas supply.

After waiting three hours without seeing a craft they could signal, it was decided to take the air again. How correctly they had judged the contents of their gas tank was shown by the fact that the last drop of gasoline was used in taxiing their machine to the landing where it was taken in tow by a crew from the naval air station.

Senor Daggan as well as his companions, Captain Eduardo Olivero and Lieutenant Ernesto Campenelli, former Italian army fliers, all were loud in praise of their machine and noted but for the rain and head-wind expressed the belief they would have made a record trip from New York.

The distance covered was approximately 370 miles. The machine was hauled off the water soon after its arrival, gone over by mechanics and refueled and rolled for the jump-off for Charleston, S. C., 400 miles away, tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock.

Tate School Given Life Size Portrait Of Colonel Sam Tate

Tate, Ga., May 24.—(Special.)—Hundreds of citizens from Pickens and other north Georgia counties gathered in the Tate High school auditorium Sunday afternoon to pay tribute to Colonel Sam Tate, Pickens county's "first citizen" and foremost marble trader of north Georgia, and to witness the unveiling of a life-size portrait of him.

Some time ago the citizens of Tate decided to pay tribute to Colonel Tate during his lifetime and by public subscription raised a fund with which to have Charles F. Nagle paint a portrait of Colonel Tate. The portrait has been appropriately called the "Master Builder." It shows Colonel Tate as he is known far and wide, as "Mr. Sam," standing by a table on which there is a blue print, and in the background one of the wonderful Georgia marble quarries operated by the Georgia Marble company, of which he is president.

The committee of Tate citizens in charge of collecting this fund was composed of William Snyder, H. Long, J. C. Jarrard, H. L. Litchfield and R. W. Ransom.

The portrait was presented by H. Long, who has been associated for years with the Georgia Marble company, of which Mr. Tate is head. Professor H. W. Ransom accepted the picture on behalf of the Tate school, to whom it was presented.

STATE NORMAL CLOSES SESSION AT ATHENS

Athens, Ga., May 24.—(Special.)—Meeting of the board of trustees of the State Normal school featured Monday's commencement program of that institution. Monday night the annual senior play was presented and the exercises of the Normal school academy were held Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

Sunday morning Dr. Arthur F. Bishop, of Philadelphia, delivered the baccalaureate sermon. The senior choruses will give its annual performance Tuesday night. The graduation exercises will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Dr. Carter Helm Jones, of Atlanta, will deliver the baccalaureate address.

PARDON RECORDS BARRED WHITMAN

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Casey Tribune.)
Joliet, Ill., May 24.—On the eve of Governor Len Small's appearance before the grand jury here, it was learned tonight that Warden John L. Whitman of the state's prison, has been barred from all access to the records of several thousands pardons and paroles granted in the last three years.

State's Attorney Hjalmar Rehn and his assistant, Ralph Austin, conducted the grand jury's investigation into the charges of wholesale graft in connection with pardons and paroles, were told today that all combinations on the sales containing the records at the penitentiary have been changed.

According to information given the state's attorney, the combinations were changed at the orders of Chauncey Jenkins, supervisor of all prisons in the state. Just what Jenkins' purpose is, will be investigated by the state's attorney, and it is understood, by Judge Hooper, of the circuit court. Judge Hooper the other day impounded the records here and ordered that they were not to be disturbed except by an order of the court or of the grand jury.

Will Colvin, chairman of the division of pardons and paroles, will resign his position if he follows the suggestion of the Will county grand jury. The Will county grand jury, according to information secured today, will have its "suggestion" machine to sign on the ground that anyone who is physically afraid of going to the penitentiary in line of duty, is not fitted to assume such great powers concerning the welfare of convicts.

In his testimony last week, Colvin, told the grand jury that he did not "like the atmosphere" at Joliet and had not attended any recent meetings of his board there.

Paris.—On the grave of a humble peasant in a small village is a marble stone which reveals what may be a world's record for progeniture. The spirit reads: "There was born and died Jeanne-Marie Fayolle. 'Do what you can' was her motto. Sixty of her descendants died for God and France and 300 survivors venerate her memory."

Coolidge, Mellon Busy Selecting New Tax Board

Washington, May 24.—(P)—President Coolidge and Secretary Mellon are having their troubles in selecting the new board of tax appeals which, under the tax law of 1924, will be composed of 16 members with appointments of 12 years and salaries of $10,000.

The present board of 15 members expires on June 1 and the new board must be appointed and confirmed by the senate to take office June 2. Mr. Mellon has been unable to settle upon a definite list of recommendations, however, and competition for the jobs steadily is growing keener.

The present board was created two years ago for a period of two years and with salaries of $7,500.

T. B. FELDER ESTATE LEFT WIDOW AND SON

New York, May 24.—The will of Thomas B. Felder, prominent lawyer and former Georgian, was filed for probate today.

The will, which was made October 15, 1923, names his widow, Mrs. William N. Felder, and Martin Manton as executrix and executor. The estate is of undetermined value, there being no real property and an unknown amount of personal property.

Thomas B. Felder, Jr., son, who is now a student at Williams college, is bequeathed $50,000 in trust. This sum is to be taken from seven life insurance policies. These policies, two for $5,000, one for $1,000, one for $3,000 and three for $10,000, were the only items of property listed in the will. Mrs. Felder receives the residue of the estate.

We have installed a new Refrigerating plant

Now we manufacture our own weather

Great news! We have installed a new refrigerating plant. The most modern of its kind, the most scientific, and the costliest. Actually manufactures weather. Every particle of air in the theatre thoroughly washed and cooled—every five minutes. Humidity scientifically lowered by refrigeration. No draughts, no chills, no unevenness of temperature. Just ideal climate. We repeat, it's great news. And you won't know how great it is until you come here some hot, sweltering day and sit through a great show in the most comfortable, most healthful atmosphere you ever breathed!

It's always cool at the Howard!

Big Shows all year 'round

The shows at the Howard are just as big and as spectacular in the summer as they are any other time of the year. That's due to Howard-Publix policy which brings not only the best shows to Atlanta but brings them all year 'round. The Howard is one of the theatres in the nation-wide chain of Publix Theatres organized to present entertainment of a quality that is out of the scope of the theatre operating individually.

BALDWIN FLOODED WITH PEACE PIPES FROM ADMIRERS

Copyright, 1923, by The Constitution and the Chicago Tribune.
London, May 23.—Peace pipes galore, gifts from ardent admirers of Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin, are flooding 10 Downing Street. Mr. Baldwin, who always is photographed smoking a briar pipe, is forced to announce that he will receive no further gifts.
The prime minister has earned huge popularity by settling the strike, so every one from belted earls to the lowliest shopgirls are replenishing his outfit of pipes. It is estimated that if the prime minister smoked a new pipe daily, he has enough to last him three years.

Good Increase Reported In South's Population During Last Five Years

Atlanta Records Greatest Gain of Georgia Cities, Being Given 203,550 in 1920.

Washington, May 24.—(Special.) Atlanta has grown exceptionally in the past ten years, according to the census bureau.
For this reason the bureau did not believe that an estimate of its increase in population based on normal growth would be a proper one, and this explains why the figure for Atlanta was not given out along with others on Monday.
Figures given out for the most part were estimated on the assumption that the annual increase of population since the census of 1910 and 1920, the bureau explained.
In the case of Atlanta, however, it was believed that a figure larger than one based on such an assumption would be correct. Therefore, it was explained, an estimate was not made.

Washington, May 24.—(AP)—Estimates of the population of 229 cities having 32,000 or more inhabitants were announced Monday by the department of commerce.
The estimates, prepared by the census bureau and carrying the figures up to July 1, this year, as based, in most cases, on the assumption that the annual increase since 1920 has been the same as the average between 1910 and 1920. For cities in states which took a state census in 1925, the estimates are based on the 1920 to 1925 average annual increase. Estimates were not given for 12 cities where the last census showed a decrease in population, nor for 10 cities where exceptional condition of growth, which would cause estimates to be far from correct, are believed to prevail.
Allowance is made for annexations and detachments of territory.
The big four, the country's only cities having a million or more population, show no change in rank. New York city's boroughs are estimated as follows: Bronx, 800,000; Brooklyn, 2,240,000; Manhattan, 1,877,000; Queens, 704,000; and Richmond, 143,000.

Chicago passed the 3,000,000 mark for the first time with 3,048,000, against 2,701,705 in 1920. Philadelphia crossing the 2,000,000 mark, retains third place with 2,008,000, against 1,823,770. Detroit continues fourth with 1,290,000, against 993,678.

Ten cities comprising the half million to a million class are: Cleveland, 900,000, against 756,841; St. Louis, 830,000, against 772,897; Baltimore, 808,000, against 733,826; Boston, 781,000, against 748,080; Pittsburgh, 657,000, against 594,277; Los Angeles, not estimated, had 576,673 in 1920; San Francisco, 567,000, against 506,675; Washington, 528,000, against 437,571; and Milwaukee, 517,000, against 457,147.

In the 400,000 class estimates are: Newark, 450,000, against 414,524; Minneapolis, 434,000, against 380,582; New Orleans, 419,000, against 387,219; Cincinnati, 411,000, against 401,247.

Birmingham led Alabama cities in growth, advancing from 178,806 in 1920 to an estimated 211,000 in 1923. Mobile was credited with 95,450 in the 1925 state census to 96,500 in the 1920 and 1925 census. Montgomery figures were 33,464 and 47,000, respectively.

Little Rock, the only Arkansas city listed, sprang from 65,142 in 1920 to 75,900 in 1923.

Cities in Florida.

Only three cities were recorded by the census bureau, Jacksonville, Pensacola and Tampa. Jacksonville figures were raised from 95,450 in the 1925 state census to 96,500 in the 1920 and 1925 census. Pensacola was given 25,305 in the state census for last year, with no figures recorded in the 1920 estimated list. Tampa had 94,743 and 102,000, respectively.

Covington, Ky., was given 57,121 in the 1920 census and an estimated 58,500 in 1923. Lexington figures were 41,334 and 47,500, and Louisville 305,935 and 311,000.

New Orleans figures were raised from 387,219 in 1920 to 419,000, and Shreveport leaped from 43,874 to 59,500 in the six-year period.

Charlotte, ranking second among North Carolina cities, was given 46,328 and 54,000 respectively, while Winston-Salem, the leader, jumped from 48,385 to 71,500. Durham was given 42,395 in 1923, and 43,900; Greensboro, 43,525 in 1923, and 48,700; Wilmington, 33,372 and 37,700. Charleston led South Carolina cities with 67,957 in 1920 and 74,100 in 1923, while Columbia rose from 37,524 to 41,800.

Chattanooga went from 57,895 to 72,200 in the six years; Knoxville from 77,818 to 98,000; Memphis from 161,351 to 177,000; and Nashville from 118,342 to 137,000.

Virginia cities recorded population increases as follows: Lynchburg 30,070 and 30,500; Newport News, 35,506 and 48,800; Norfolk, 115,777 and 174,000; Petersburg, 31,012 and 38,400; Portsmouth, 54,387 and 59,900; Richmond, 171,067 and 189,000; Roanoke, 50,842 and 61,000.

Atlanta recorded the largest growth among Georgia cities, being given 203,550 in 1920, but approximate figures are not obtainable for 1923. Augusta was given 52,548 and 45,000; Columbus, 31,125 and 45,000; Macon, 52,963 and 59,200; Savannah, 33,232 and 34,000.

SAMUEL SENATE IS GIVEN TERM IN ATLANTA PEN

New York, May 24.—(AP)—Upon his plea of guilty to the indictment charging him with Mannie Kessler, Morris Sweetwood and others with violating the prohibition act in the operation of the "South River Chemical plant," an alleged liquor cutting plant and distillery at South River, N. J., Samuel Senate was sentenced today to serve a year and a day at Atlanta and to pay a fine of $2,500.

Assistant United States Attorney Watts told the court that Senate had been heard by dictaphone offering a prohibition investigator $5,000 in cash and $1,000 a month to "lay off."

Kessler and Sweetwood previously pleaded guilty but were released in bail pending trial of 21 other men alleged to have been implicated with them. The South River plant was said to manufacture 4,000 gallons of liquor.

Engineered to a Standard— Built Complete at the Factory

"Engineered to a standard." To do one job only—and to do it perfectly—to heat homes. To provide always, regardless of weather, just the right heat, at the right time. To operate without the expert supervision given industrial oil burners—but to be instead, wholly automatic. To be quiet, odorless, clean. To be unfailingly and instantly efficient. To be genuinely economical.

This, in Kleen-Heet, is both an ideal and an actuality. For not only is Kleen-Heet "engineered to a standard." It is also "Built complete at the factory." Kleen-Heet's efficiency does not depend upon complicated installation. Nothing is left to artisans unskilled in the science of heating. In Kleen-Heet, everything necessary to efficient operation in your home comes in-built, according to engineers' specifications.

That is why, through more than six years, Kleen-Heet has so remarkable a record of performance. In homes of every size—and in every type of heating plant.

FAMED BEAUTY HERE TO SECURE EVIDENCE

enthused over the prospect of securing a verdict in her favor.
"For long years," she cried, "I have been hounded and persecuted; my honor dragged through the mire; my social standing ruined; my life made miserable by the man I married."
She has acted as her own detective and has laboriously toiled the country, digging up proof of her innocence here, securing a statement there; tracing every rumor to its source, until she now feels that she has evidence which will close the world story of her husband's suit for annulment of their marriage on charges which rocked eastern society to its foundations and brought caustic newspaper and public comment at Harris' expense in Tennessee—home state of Mrs. Harris—and other southern states.
"I was charged with being my father's mistress; they brogasted the fact that I was a 'love child'; they did and said everything possible for human ingenuity to devise in order to wreck and ruin my life," the beautiful young woman sobbed in her apartment at the Biltmore Monday night. "But I have fought them at their own game; I have refused to bow my head before their sinister statements, and now I believe I have won. I have always said that I would never rest until my name was cleared, and this pledge I repeat."

Mrs. Harris, who spent several days in Atlanta about three years ago in search of evidence, made it known that a fund of $200,000 for her legal battle to this end had been raised by a Wall Street pool of men who sympathized with her in her fight.

The famed beauty was married to Harris in St. Louis in 1915, a few months after they met in Texas. They separated in 1919. Mrs. Harris received an allowance of $1,000 a month, which was discontinued when the annulment was granted her husband. Mrs. Harris expects to leave Atlanta in a few days for Florida, where she will visit friends at fashionable watering places in that state.

Easy To Gain Weight With Yeast and Iron

New Combination of Yeast With Vegetable Iron Builds Up Weight in Three Weeks

Thin, run-down and underweight men, women and children can improve their health, increase their energy and put on from five to twenty pounds of good solid flesh in three weeks. A new combination of yeast vitamins with vegetable iron, renews the action of sluggish blood cells, drives out dangerous body poisons, increases energy and endurance and supplies the system with the vitamins that build up weight.

For years yeast has been known as a rich vitamin food, but not until we perfected "ironized yeast"—which comes in concentrated tablet form, was it possible to take yeast and iron in the right proportions to build up weight. Vegetable "Iron" when combined with yeast is quite easy to digest, therefore better for the system. And "yeast" when ironized becomes just twice as beneficial as ordinary fresh or cake yeast.

Ironized Yeast tablets are composed of concentrated food elements, therefore they are pleasant to take and free from drug-like effects. It makes no difference how old you are—or how young you are—how long you have been underweight—or how much underweight you are, "ironized yeast" tablets are positively guaranteed to pick you right up, and add from five to twenty pounds of good firm flesh in three weeks' time. If they fail get your money back. Sold by druggists, at $1.00 for a large 60-tablet package, or sent direct from laboratory on receipt of price. Ironized Yeast Co., Desk 201, Atlanta, Ga.

of Dr. and Mrs. Lupton. On this occasion leading citizens will express the appreciation which this city feels for what has been described as the most remarkable series of gifts ever made by a southern philanthropist to a southern institution located outside of his own city and state. Dr. and Mrs. Lupton have been the staunchest and most liberal benefactors to Oglethorpe university ever since the day, some ten years ago, when they first became interested in the institution.

On Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock the board of trustees will hear brief annual reports on the work of faculty and students at the annual luncheon at the Biltmore, after which the party will proceed to the campus to take part in programs there. The Saturday afternoon program will be featured by cornerstone layings for Hermance stadium and Lowry Hall, and by a baseball game between the "Old Grads," and the 1926 varsity team. Buffet supper will be served visitors, faculty and students.

The dedication of Lupton Hall, latest gift to the university by Dr. and Mrs. Lupton, will include presentation of a one-act play, "The Lupton Story," to be given on the stage of Lupton auditorium by the Oglethorpe Players, under direction of Dr. James Routh. This will be followed at 8 o'clock by an orchestra recital under the baton of John T. Lee, and the program will conclude with a general inspection of the buildings of the university for the benefit of the visitors.

INFANTRY CHIEF SEES REGIMENTAL REVIEW AT FORT

Major General Robert H. Allen, chief of infantry of the United States army, of Washington, D. C., on Monday afternoon reviewed the 22d infantry regiment, commanded by Colonel George F. Baltzell, on the parade ground at Fort McPherson.

General Allen has just concluded a tour of inspection of the infantry school at Fort Benning. On Monday he was the guest of Brigadier General and Mrs. Joseph D. Leitch and at the conclusion of the regimental parade officers at Fort McPherson were his hosts at a tea-dance.

This morning the mounted troops at Fort McPherson will leave for Camp McClellan, where they will take part in the summer field maneuvers and act as instructors for the R. O. T. C. and G. M. T. C. holding their annual encampments there.

NO COURT ACTION LIKELY FOR WOMAN WHO AIDED ESCAPE

No court action is probable against Mrs. R. G. Brookins, 22-year-old wife of a guard at the state prison farm at Milledgeville, for her part in aiding Gary Jones, a convict "trustee," to escape last Friday, according to an announcement made at the office of the state prison commission Monday. Dispatches from Baldwin county stated that the officials of that county would leave the matter to the grand jury to handle at its next session.

According to a report filed Monday with the commission by C. H. Dunaway, superintendent of the state prison farm, Mrs. Brookins picked up Jones in an automobile while Jones was on the highway on his way to the Brookins home, where he had intended to repair a door, according to his statement to guards. Mrs. Brookins and Jones were taken into custody at Macon and were taken back to the state prison farm. On his return to the farm Jones was placed in solitary confinement as punishment for escaping. He is serving a seven-year sentence on a charge of forgery.

Globe-Circler Gains as Boat Nears England

BY JOHN GOLDSTROM.
(Special Correspondent of The Constitution and North American Newspaper Alliance. Copyright, 1935, for The Constitution and North American Newspaper Alliance.)

Abroad S. S. Mauretania, May 23. (By Radio.)—The Mauretania is far ahead of her schedule and will easily be able to drop me at Plymouth before sunrise Tuesday. Today at the end of the fourth 24 hours of my attempt to set a new record for circling the globe I had covered 2,906 miles, our fourth day's run having been 592 miles.

The Mauretania has been making many steamers and racing at her best speed to aid my effort, in spite of a heavy gale and very rough seas. Today the sea is moderating and the sky clearing.

Up to date I have made a daily average of 570 miles, 48 miles more than the daily average necessary to complete the trip in 35 days—more than 21 hours under the present record.

Approval of the judges' decision to award no grand prize was received with applause by guests. It was also given endorsement by Hollis Randolph, president of the association.

"Among the 29 sponsors, each one of whom possesses an eminent degree all the qualities necessary to a successful contest," Judge William H. Ellis, of the Florida supreme court, declared in giving the decision, "it would be a mere matter of individual taste to award the prize to any one of them. We, therefore, recommend to the Stone Mountain Memorial association that a gold medal of appropriate design and suitable inscription be awarded to each contestant."

Special thanks were given Mrs. William L. Moore, Mrs. Walter Gordon Roper and Miss Jenny Robinson for "their splendid work in planning the appreciation ball."

Is your appetite gone?

REMEMBER, how it used to be when you could hardly wait for mealtime? And then, sit down and eat several helpings of everything—enjoy every morsel and get up from the table feeling satisfied with the World, happy with everybody and ready for anything.

But what a difference in living when even the sight and smell of food sickens you! Never hungry—no matter how tempting the food is—nothing tasting right. And then, after nibbling at a few bites, feeling worse than ever.

Oh, life is hardly worth living this way. And yet, all in the World the matter with you is that you are starving for rich, red blood. It is acknowledged everywhere that S. S. S. helps Nature build these healthy red-blood-cells by the millions.

All you need to do to get back that wonderful appetite is to build rich, red-blood-cells with S. S. S. It's simple. Just try it, like thousands are doing every day. See for yourself what S. S. S. will do.

S. S. S. means blood with a punch. Brimful of new life and energy. Get your S. S. S. at any good drug-gist. The larger size is more economical.

outstanding example of lawbreaking before the American people."

The modernist preacher was characterized by T. T. Shields, of Toronto, Canada, as "one of the greatest enemies of the Christian church today."

Shields is president of the Bible union.

Rev. J. Frank Norris, of Fort Worth, Texas, blamed Rockefeller directly for the conflict in the northern Baptist church between modernists and fundamentalists.

"But for his millions, the northern convention would not witness this upheaval," he declared.

"Mr. John D. Rockefeller is no doubt a sincere and philanthropic soul, but he is obsessed with the ambition to standardize religion and in his efforts to break down all distinctions to eliminate the supernatural he at once becomes a personal issue in the present war between fundamentalists and modernists."

He said the fight is on throughout the south to reject further gifts from Rockefeller, "because of the effect which his money has in rationalizing the colleges."

"What the present lawless element would do to overthrow the constitution, especially the 18th amendment, so modernists are attempting to do to the authority of the scriptures," Norris declared. "For this cause, the first time in my life I am going to vote the republican ticket when President Coolidge is re-nominated."

"The same knock-out blow that he gave to the south in the bootlegging case," he declared, "is now being commanded all peace officers of the state to enforce prohibition—that's the thing that our denominational leaders and educators should do to modernism."

some time Acting Assistant Chief Connolly was named acting chief.

Although Mr. Hartsfield would make no definite announcement it is expected that at the meeting of the police committee will be held following reinstatement of Chief Beavers in order that a permanent assistant chief may be selected.

Beavers has been suffering from a slight stroke of paralysis but Monday declared he was "feeling fit again."

It was feared for several weeks that he would be unable to assume his duties again.

A strong movement to select Captain Grover C. Fain as assistant chief is said to be on foot in the police committee, but whether he would be acceptable to Chief Beavers is a matter of doubt and the chief Monday would not commit himself. If he does not wish to have Fain he can nominate six other candidates but if the committee fails to elect any one of the six which chief nominates, it is at liberty to elect an assistant of its own choice, according to the city code governing such elections.

Quoted in 1924.

Chief Beavers was ousted in April, 1924, by the police committee of council, but appealed to the courts. Fulton superior court held that the firing of the chief for alleged failure to observe the rules of the department was legal, but the Georgia appellate court in a decision handed down about 10 days ago, held that the rule was "indefinite and, therefore, that Beavers was illegally discharged."

It was rumored that if there was any delay in placing Beavers at the head of the department as soon as the court order is issued mandamus proceedings will be instituted immediately in his behalf. It also was said that if council attempts to prevent payment of about $5,000 in salary, which the chief claims is due him from the time he was ousted until his reinstatement, a similar action will be taken. His attorneys said they preferred to "let matters taken their course without making any premature announcements."

Clubwomen Will Discuss Rescue of American Home

GENERAL FEDERATION TO CONVENE TONIGHT

Atlantic City, N. J., May 24.—(AP)—Rescue of the American home from influences which would relegate it to the background will be the keynote of the 18th biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, which will be formally opened tomorrow night.

A complete revolution in home life, in the opinion of Mrs. John D. Sherman, national president, will develop from the gathering for which 10,000 women assembled here today.

"Even as clothiers and steel workers and psychologists meet to discuss their lines of work," she said, "so will the home builders for the next ten days in Atlantic City."

Other matters to be discussed are the proposed federal department of education, honest merchandising, exten-

land, democrat, declared the order breaks down the last vestige of state sovereignty.

"The harder you try to enforce this law the greater the resistance from the people," he said.

This is the first dry enforcement move that has failed to stir passionate defense from the drys in congress. Thus far they have remained silent under the most savage attacks from the wets. Some drys as have spoken have condemned the move on the ground that it invaded state rights.

"There is no doubt here that the officials responsible for the order regret the step was taken but it probably will become ineffective through inaction rather than revocation."

GEORGIA GOVERNOR OFFERS COOPERATION

Governor Clifford Walker will request Georgia officers to cooperate with the federal government in enforcement of prohibition laws, under a plan recently announced from Washington, he stated Monday.

The governor said he had not devoted much time to a study of the question but declared his willingness to cooperate with the federal government in any way he can in any law enforcement endeavor.

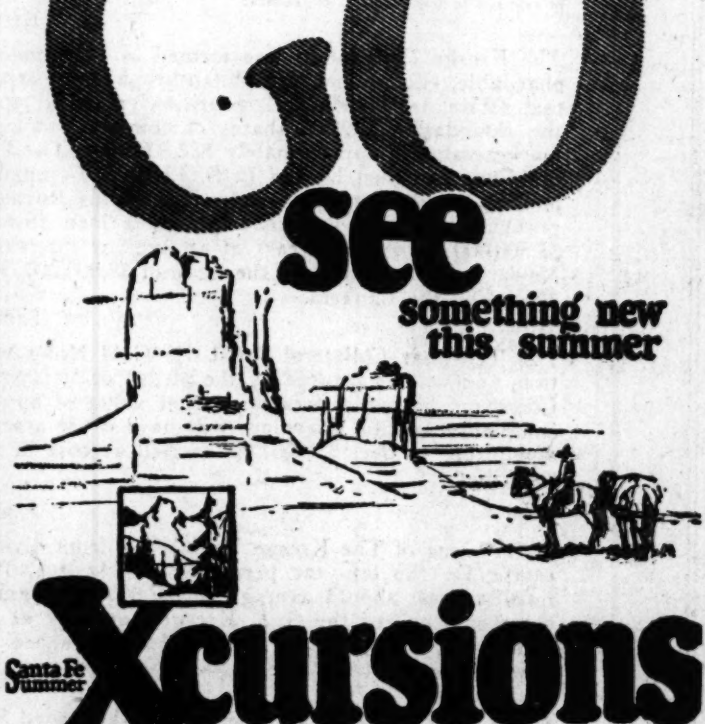

"I have not been called upon thus far to enter any conference on the subject," the governor said, "and pressed the opinion that there was no inhibition which would prevent Georgia officers from cooperating with federal officers along lines suggested by President Coolidge."

ATLANTA-FORSYTH TRAFFIC ROUTED OVER HIGHWAY 42

Indian Springs, Ga., May 24.—(Special.)—On account of the road-building program between Griffin and Atlanta motor traffic is being diverted largely by route No. 42 from Forsyth to Atlanta, through Indian Springs, Jackson, Jenkinsburg, McDonough and Stockbridge. This route is 13 miles shorter between Macon and Atlanta than the Dixie highway, and is in excellent condition all the way.

It is a very picturesque route, with long winding hills, through a highly cultivated farm area with grain crops in prime condition. The check is from 150 to 300 sars daily of north-bound tourists.

"This Volstead act seems to be in a sacred class all by itself," he added. Representative Linthicum, Mary-

BOOTLEG DEALERS ATTEMPT TO WIN COURT FIGHT

Washington, May 24.—(AP)—Prohibition enforcement officials' hopes of basing prosecution on bootleggers' records of sales to customers were set back today when the supreme court ruled that bootleggers are not required to furnish the government with sales records.

In deciding two cases from Pennsylvania the court, in a ruling read by Justice Stone, held that the whiskey sales records required by the prohibition enforcement act apply only to those persons holding government permits to sell intoxicating liquors. The ruling was in the cases of Jacob Katz, George Senn and Herman Feurstein, and it denied the right of the government to prosecute bootleggers and their customers for failure to provide lists of illegal transactions.

Action of the trial court in quashing indictments against the men charging the right of the government to confiscate automobiles being purchased on the deferred payment and used in the illegal transportation of liquor.

In one of these coming from Alabama against the Garth Motor company, the government lost, and in the other, from the state of Washington against the Gardner Investment company, it won.

FOUR PRISONERS SLAIN IN FLIGHT

Pine Bluff, Ark., May 24.—(AP)—Four prisoners at the state farm in Tucker were shot and instantly killed here late today by two trusty guards in one of the boldest breaks for liberty ever known to the farm.

The men were Jack Wade, John Birchfield, Benny Casey and Loyd Jewell, two of whom were life-termers. Working in a cotton field at the farm, the quartet claimed sickness and were turned over to the trusties to be carried to a hospital. Reaching nearby woods, the men made a break, the guards opening fire. Two shotguns and two pistols were emptied by the trusties. The men were dead when the guards reached them.

According to Superintendent Dee Horton of the state farm tonight, the break for liberty today was the boldest made by the men within the past year. They have made several attempts to escape at night, and always worked together, he said.

Superintendent Horton would not reveal the names of the guards who did the shooting. He said that the guards told him while in a small neck in the woods one of the men made a signal with his hands, and the other three nodded their heads and started off on a run.

One guard, on a horse, opened fire with his shotgun, but the man on the ground used his pistol. After emptying these firearms they alternated, one firing a pistol and the other a gun.

All of the convicts dropped within 100 yards of the guards and died before the latter reached them.

As New York grew with the East, Atlanta is growing with the South.

"The next fifty years belong to the South," a writer in Review of Reviews recently remarked. And the South, from the stand-point of distribution, sales, wholesaling, and commercial development, belongs largely to Atlanta.

The growth, soundness and ability of its banks have helped Atlanta to help the South. The Citizens and Southern, with greater resources than any other financial institution between Philadelphia and New Orleans, assures sound, constructive, Atlanta undertakings of ample banking support.

Then he came up for the seventh, fearless, but game. Punishment in the clinches was again Neuman's share,

McKenzie Upsets Dope By Beating Veteran In Thrilling Match

U. S. Players Show Great Form at Muirfield—Large Gallery Applauds Victory of Invaders—Bobby and Watts Rest Monday For Their Match Today.

Turning cool and the wind was rising. Bobby Jones, Watts Gunn and the others who were prevented from playing Monday because of the exceptionally large field, will make their first appearance Tuesday.

Watts Gunn has been nursing a rheumatic knee, but managed to get in a practice round today with Jess Sweetser.

British critics are hailing Roland Mackenzie as the "boy wonder." They are amazed by his long tee shots and declare the youth outdressed Jesse Guilford.

On the 458-yard sixth, Mackenzie was on in two down in three with a beautiful 30-foot putt.

Tom Paine, of the United States golf committee, followed the Washington boy enthusiastically.

There was nothing inspiring about Von Elm's defeat of Boyack, as the Californian was only one up at the start and should have won by a wider margin.

Jess Sweetser was lucky to have his opponent default, as this gave the New Yorker's bad knee an extra day of rest.

Jess limped around in the afternoon with the other American crumple. Watts Gunn, who is lame in the left leg and suffering from a heavy cold.

Bobby Jones and Bob Gardner managed to get in practice rounds, the Atlanta playing with the British pro, George Duncan.

Great Britain regretted the defeat of Cyril Tolley, a former champion, and of Major Hazle, who recently led a field which included the American Walker cup golfers.

The largest gallery of the day had followed Tolley and groaned when he was beaten by A. R. Hall Caine, captain of the 1924 Oxford golf team.

John McCormack, who was twice the amateur champion of Ireland and who spent the first three years after the war in bed with a steel jacket from a shot through the spine, cheered the crowd today when he defeated Gordon Simpson, the Scotch star, at the 20th hole.

The results of the first day's play of interest to Americans follow:

Dunald Woodward, Columbia, C. C. Washington, D. C., beat A. Stanley Lunt, of Moseley, 2 and 1.

Albert J. Mackenzie, Columbia, C. C. Washington, D. C., lost to Captain R. H. Jackson, Sunningdale, 6 and 5.

Dr. W. W. Rixey, Bridgeport, Pa., lost to C. Shankland, St. Georges Hill, 6 and 5.

Robert W. Riley, Piping Rock, N. Y., lost to J. B. Beddard, South Staffordshire, 6 and 5.

E. H. Molham, Gulph Mills, W. Va., scratched.

W. J. O'Brien, Timuquana club, Jacksonville, Fla., scratched.

Jesse Guilford, Woodlawn, beat Bernie Cleveleys, Hydro club, 7 and 6.

W. C. Fownes, Oakmont, Pa., lost to James Cowan, Edinburgh, 3 and 2.

George Von Elm, Los Angeles, beat Russell Boyack, Baberton, 4 and 3.

Francis Oumet, Brookline, beat F. W. Williamson, Carlisle City, 7 and 6.

C. Gilbert Walde, Jr., Detroit, walked over.

J. W. Spratt, Jacksonville, Fla., scratched.

Alfred C. Ulmer, Timuquana club, Jacksonville, Fla., lost to Roger Wethered, 1 down.

Jess Sweetser, New York, walked over.

Roland Mackenzie, Washington, D. C., beat W. J. Guild, Murrayfield, 3 and 2.

Sam Robinson, Southport, beat Everett J. Brooks, St. Louis, 7 and 5.

Cyril Tolley lost to A. R. Hall Caine, 4 and 3.

Robert Morris, Royal and Ancient, 1925 champion, beat T. A. Torrance, Sandy Lodge, 3 and 2.

YANKEES ADD ANOTHER WIN TO LONG LIST

Even the supposedly unlucky No. 13 proved impotent to interrupt the winning streak of the New York Yankees.

Miller Huggins' men lengthened their string of consecutive victories to thirteen at the expense of the Boston Red Sox Monday.

Urban Shocker won a pitchers' battle from Witte, 4 to 2, allowing the Sox but five hits.

The Chicago White Sox went into the first division by defeating Detroit, 10 to 4.

The Philadelphia Athletics, who were prevented by rain from playing their game with Washington, are once more back in the second division.

The Browns interrupted a losing streak by beating the Cleveland Indians, 8 to 5.

Upsets marked the two games in the National league. The Pirates made twelve hits off Fred Blake, of the Cubs, who were held to seven safeties by Aldridge and Senger.

But Chicago won, 3 to 1.

The St. Louis Cardinals, using six pitchers, came from behind to beat the Reds, 11 to 6.

St. Louis, trailing 6 to 0 in the sixth, made all its runs in its last three innings, scoring seven times in the eighth. Rixey and Mays were the victims.

Philadelphia, May 24.—(AP)—A marathon team race is to be a feature of the Shriners' convention here next week.

The entry list, announced today, includes sixty-seven of the country's leading long distance runners.

Starting at Washington's headquarters, Valley Forge, and finishing at the municipal stadium, the race will cover the course over which the continental soldiers made their march to winter quarters.

To close the race over the marathon distance of 26 miles, 38 yards, the contestants will run three quarters of a lap around the track at the stadium.

Philadelphia, May 24.—(AP)—A cyclone of unprecedented violence struck here this afternoon.

Nine ships at Kitterpore docks broke from their moorings and are drifting helplessly.

Seven cargo-laden boats were sunk and other ships suffered minor damages.

A launch sank with the loss of four lives. Huge trees were razed, hundreds of telephone and tram wires were broken, and services are partially suspended tonight.

The duration of the storm was 10 minutes.

George Adair III, 17-year-old son of Mrs. George Adair, of Wesley road, and the late George Adair, Jr., was graduated with first honors Monday morning from Riverside Military academy at Gainesville, Ga., according to news received by members of the family here.

Another honor was conferred upon young Adair at the exercises when a gold bar was pinned on his sleeve as a reward for his excellent work at the academy, which kept his name on the institution's honor roll for 10 consecutive weeks.

Phi Delta Nine Beats Sigma Nus

Emory University, Ga., May 24.—(Special).—"Pete" Peterson twirled his fraternity, the Phi Delta Thetas, to victory over the Sigma Nus in the final game of the Pan-Hellenic baseball tournament at Emory, by a score of 15 to 11.

Harper, pitching ace of the Sigma Nus, nursed a sore arm and had to be content with holding down the keystone while his team was being defeated.

Peacock, substitute pitcher, being unable to stem the tide of the Phi Delta Theta slugs.

Two home runs were knocked during the battle. Hodge, of the Sigma Nus, chalking up one for his side and Hamilton, of the winners, accounting for the other.

Hamilton caught for the Thetas, while Sewell received for the losers.

The Sigma Nu nine, eliminated by the Phi Delta Thetas Saturday afternoon, were the runners-up in the tourney.

Haugen Measure May Be Reported To House Again

Washington, May 24.—(AP)—While nothing was done in a legislative way on farm relief in the house today, it still was a live issue among members and reference was made to it on the floor.

Representative Fulmer, democrat, South Carolina, told the house that the agriculture committee of which he is a member, might again report the Haugen price stabilization bill, which was defeated last Friday.

He said 15 members of the committee were behind the measure while only three favored the Tinch credit bill and two the Curtis-Aswell commodity marketing measure.

Instead a number of minor bills were taken up. Members said there was no indication when the subject would be brought up again, though there was no disposition to hold it a dead issue.

Some held it would be wise to wait for the senate to act before attempting to get another bill to the house, while Chairman Hamer said he had not decided what course he would pursue.

Representative Aswell, of Louisiana, ranking democrat on the committee, and co-author of the Aswell plan, asserted that he still expected to press for action on a new bill he has prepared, which is a combination of his measure and the Tinch bill.

He did not know when he would make a further move, however.

Representative Tinch, republican, Kansas, said he considered his bill still pending and expected it to pass at this session.

Supreme Court Declines To Act In Dollar Sale

Washington, May 24.—(AP)—Chief Justice McCoey, in District of Columbia supreme court, today declined to enjoin the shipping board from completion of its sale of five ships of the Admiral Oriental line to R. Stanley Dollar.

Justice McCoey held that Dollar had gained no advantage in the bidding and overruled the contention of northern interests opposing the sale of the Dollar knew before they did of changes made by the shipping board in the bid specifications.

Counsel for the plaintiffs, who included the Puget Sound Oriental line and residents of Washington and Oregon, had asked the court to direct the board to reopen the sale and consider the Puget Sound Oriental line's bid of $4,000,000 for the vessels, which was $100,000 more than Dollar offered.

it but Morrison's pitchout wasn't out of reach and Gilbert went after it and hit it through second, Parenti having gone over to cover the bag. Then a long fly to left by Brock brought in the run. Tinch in the seventh.

Crackers won the game. Griffith made a nice catch on Haas' long fly but Smith singled by second and then scored when Niehaus doubled, a hard drive inside second that was just out of Parenti's reach.

Blackburne threw out Gilbert but Brock's single to center scored Niehaus with the run. Tinch Bagby needed for a victory. Bagby grounded out to Clancy. The travelers had a chance to score in the eighth but fast fielding shut them off.

Mulder hit a sizzling grounder over first but Niehaus knocked the ball down and recovered in time to make an unassisted out at first. Griffith then drove a low liner to right that Good got but couldn't hold. It was a two base hit. Niehaus then saved the game for the Crackers by making another beautiful stop.

Clancy's hard grounder and throwing to Bagby who covered first. Niehoff threw out Whitney. Johnson batted for Parenti to start Little Rock's ninth but Murphy went back to short left center for the fly. Blackburne hit one to the same place and Murphy got it too.

Then Senstock, batting for Morrison, got one out of reach of the fly chasing shortstop for a single. When Senstock attempted to steal second Brock threw low, the ball going to center field and the pinch hitting catcher reaching third, but Niehoff made a nice play on Whaley's grounder and threw him out at first, to end the game with Little Rock still one run behind.

The Texas-Pacific-Missouri-Pacific Terminal Railroad of New Orleans was authorized by the interstate commerce commission today to issue $1,040,000 of first mortgage 5 1/2 percent gold bonds and the Missouri Pacific and the Texas & Pacific railroad were authorized to guarantee them.

WORLDRECORD BELIEVED SET BY TECH HIGH

Tech High school, in winning the half-mile relay sprint medley at the A. A. U. track meet at Birmingham Saturday, set what is believed to be a new world's record by negotiating the distance in 1 minute 46.3 seconds.

In addition to all that the Smithie quartet also clipped a few seconds off the half-mile relay, only to be passed out by Baylor, who set a new world's mark of 1 minute 30.9 seconds.

The former intercollegiate record for the relay was 1 minute 32.2 seconds, set by Northeast High school, of Kansas City, in 1925. The Kansas City school crashing a record that had stood for 22 years.

In the sprint medley, officials are investigating to ascertain definitely whether the Tech High record smashes the former mark. Members of the Tech High team, which ran both events at Birmingham, are Captain Buster Cook, George Coffee, Harry Battle and Charles Bardwell.

Miss Howington Weds Mr. Jones At Palm Beach

Combining beautiful simplicity and social interest was the marriage of Miss Ruby Irene Howington and Luther Walton Jones, which was quietly celebrated Saturday at 9 o'clock in the morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Miller, West Palm Beach, Fla. The wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Sidney G. Tronell and Mrs. W. M. Westmoreland. The bride was attended by Mrs. C. H. Means, of Jacksonville, Samuel House, of this city, acting as the groom's best man. The wedding ceremony was read by Rev. R. M. Broyles, of West Palm Beach.

The bride wore a dark coral robe, simple and trim, with a wide belt of white material. She wore accessories of tan to match. An arm bouquet of valley lilies and maidenhair ferns completed her attractive costume.

After the ceremony the bride and groom left immediately on a motor trip to points in Georgia and Virginia, and will be at home to their friends in the Iris apartments in West Palm Beach, Fla., after June 1.

Mrs. Jones is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jackson Howington, of Atlanta, being connected with the Howington family of Georgia and Florida. On her maternal side, she is related to the well-known Paynes family of Georgia.

The groom is the son of Mrs. J. B. Jones, of West Palm Beach and Winsboro, S. C. He is well known in Washington circles, having served as secretary to the former Senator Ben R. Tillman, of South Carolina, and Congressman J. W. Ragsdale. He attended George Washington university, U. S. A. E. fraternity. Mr. Jones served in the U. S. marine corps during the world war, having been appointed as aide to Major General John A. LeJeune, of the Second division, returning home with the rank of captain. He is now connected with Carr & Carr, Inc., one of the largest real estate firms on the east coast of Florida, as sales manager.

DIVER SUFFOCATES AT RIVER BOTTOM; ARREST PREDICTED

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

New York, May 24.—A possible victim of another's carelessness, John Divine, a diver, suffocated in his steel-encased helmet at the bottom of the East river today.

Divine, the father of five children, was engaged in the submarine project of the Edison company, tunneling for a screen intake under water at the foot of East 14th street. His foot caught in a network of steel and he was unable to free himself. Police tonight were investigating a report that Divine's air line was temporarily disconnected, an act that may have occasioned his fatal misstep. An arrest will be made, it was said, if neglect is disclosed.

Divine was freed by his companion diver, Alex Hansen, after 20 minutes' desperate work but was dead when brought to the surface.

DURKIN GRANTED FIFTEENTH DELAY IN MURDER TRIAL

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Chicago, Ill., May 24.—Martin J. Durkin, under indictment for the alleged murder of Edward C. Shanahan, a federal sleuth and Police Sergeant Harry Gray, was granted his fifteenth continuance today when he appeared with his newly appointed counsel before Judge Miller, of the criminal court.

Durkin has changed counsel five times and each time a continuance has been granted to allow the new counsel to prepare for the case. Judge Miller indicated today, however, that June 1 would be the deadline and that Durkin must go to trial that day.

New York, May 24.—(AP)—All but one juror necessary to begin actual trial of Jacob and Leon Kraemer, alleged "brains" of the Richard Reese Whitemore robbery band, was selected today. Adjournment was taken when the panel had been exhausted by numerous challenges from each side.

The Kraemers are on trial on one of the five indictments charging them with robbery in the first degree as second offenders. The specific charge in this trial is $6,100 in jewelry from a Nassau street jewelry store last December.

The half brothers are the only members of the gang who refused to make any statement concerning the gang's depredations, said to have amounted to more than $1,000,000 when the ring was broken up by police.

ALLEGED "BRAINS" OF WHITEMORE GANG ON TRIAL

New York, May 24.—(AP)—All but one juror necessary to begin actual trial of Jacob and Leon Kraemer, alleged "brains" of the Richard Reese Whitemore robbery band, was selected today. Adjournment was taken when the panel had been exhausted by numerous challenges from each side.

The Kraemers are on trial on one of the five indictments charging them with robbery in the first degree as second offenders. The specific charge in this trial is $6,100 in jewelry from a Nassau street jewelry store last December.

The half brothers are the only members of the gang who refused to make any statement concerning the gang's depredations, said to have amounted to more than $1,000,000 when the ring was broken up by police.

World War Official Record Shown on Screen at Atlanta

It would have been unbearable a few years ago. Now, however, with the healing touch of time—eight years since the last gun fired—the record of the world war, as kept in motion picture film by the governments of the nations involved, proves intensely interesting.

This official film record is showing, afternoon and night, at the Atlanta theater all this week, brought here under the auspices of the American Legion. It would be well if all of us—at least those who were not numbered among the fighting men during the Titanic conflict—would make it our business to go and see the picture.

No Story or Plot.
There is no story, no plot, no story other than the story on tremendous scale, of the war itself. There is no glossing over of facts, just as there is no artificial thrill. It is an official record, arranged in chronological order, to tell again the story that the world lived in the years from 1914 to 1918.

The picture, of course, deals chiefly

The Quick, Easy Way To Make Better Jams and Jellies

By Elizabeth Palmer

If you want your jams and jellies this year to give you a real thrill of pride, make them by the new short-bolt method with Certo.

You've no idea how easy it is and what an improvement it makes in color and flavor. "My strawberry jam tastes enough like fresh berries to use in strawberry shortcake," says one delighted woman who uses Certo.

Certo is a pure fruit product—the jelly substance of fruit refined and bottled. When you use Certo you do not have to "boil your fruit down."

One or two minutes' boiling is all it needs. It cannot fail to jelly.

This short boiling time with Certo preserves the natural flavor and color of your fresh fruit, and gives you more jam or jelly, because you save the juice which used to boil away.

A recipe book comes with each bottle of Certo. Your grocer carries Certo, or you can send 10c (for postage) and get a trial half-size bottle which will make from 6 to 10 glasses of jam or jelly, depending upon the recipe used. She becomes a racing enthusiast and this leads to a plan whereby she

With a little of everything—thrills, comedy, pathos—that goes into the making of a great picture, "Her Second Chance," playing at the Metropolitan theater this week, joins the ranks of the many-called-but-few-are-chosen good pictures. With Anna Q. Nilsson as the star and Huntly Gordon supporting, "Her Second Chance" boasts of an extraordinarily capable cast.

The plot might be stronger, but after all, the weak places in the story are concealed by excellent acting on the part of Miss Nilsson. The story has to do with a Kentucky mountain girl, who fancies she is wronged when sentenced for shooting a man, and she vows vengeance on the judge who sentenced her.

with America's part in the ghastly epic. It is put out for American consumption, but always it is authentic. The actual historic record, with statistics and maps, is shown, and the pictures were all taken in actual battle. Probably the men who went through the awful experience will not care to see the picture, especially. And really, it is not necessary that they should. For the man who went through modern warfare who would like to go through it again is yet undiscovered. It is for those who have never been under fire that the picture is shown. If it achieves its purpose, peace eternal will bless the earth from now on.

Authentic Record.
An authentic record, gathered together from the archives of the army and navy departments, it is arranged to tell the dramatic story of the war. The cast consists of the millions of men who actually took part. That is all it is. But if you can sit through the two hours of pictures of modern warfare with a choice of suffering, courage and immortal heroism, without a thrill, you have lost your touch with earth and will be bored when your soul beholds the wonders of heaven and the glory of the firmament.

For what, in creation, is greater than the unflinching courage of ordinary men and that is what this picture brings.

"GARDEN FESTIVAL" DRAWS BIG HOUSE TO THE HOWARD

Manager Morrison and Assistant Manager Grist, of the Howard theater, hung out the S. R. O. sign Monday, with moviegoers jamming the doors to Atlanta's popular-price house of modern motion picture productions.

And the crowds who went were well informed, for the show at the Howard this week is a first-rate performance from the first flash of Conductor Joseph Littauer's baton in the magnificent overture, "Fortune Teller," until the final curtain rings on the absorbing pictures and the dazzling stage production, "A Garden Festival."

As for the production, "A Garden Festival," it is based on a gorgeous painting by Watteau, that pensive, painter of the seventeenth century scenes. There was a time when "Paris dressed, posed, picknicked and conversed a la Watteau," and this is the time pictured in "A Garden Festival."

The picture comes up to the Howard standards. W. C. Fields plays in "The Old Army" with Louise Brooks, another Paramount leading lady. The comedy is "Our Gang" in "One Wild Ride," a picture that really is amusing. There is also the International News Reel.

The overture, "Fortune Teller," is in memory of the late Victor Herbert, composer, who died two years ago this week. There are those who say that Herbert's mantle may one day fall on young Littauer's shoulders, as he himself is gifted in the composition of the Howard orchestra. The organ solo, "Rosary," arouses interest and applause.

Amusements

The Rialto.

A fine dramatic picture of the sea will stir your blood at the Rialto theater this week.

It is "Sea Horses," which proved at the opening yesterday all that was claimed for it—a stirring and colorful melodrama with a choice assortment of spectacular features.

Audiences yesterday were constantly entertained and frequently amazed.

There is a hand-to-hand struggle, "Now or Never," which provides a lot of amusement, in addition to the usual other features.

It is to the credit of Director Allan Dwan that "Sea Horses" retains the rest of the week.

The early scenes are laid on a big ocean freighter, and Dwan has managed to recreate very vividly the scenes of the sea in ships. A realistic fight and a wild storm at sea add to the general excitement.

The rest of the action takes place in an isolated port on the East African coast, where the principal characters come into open and bitter conflict, and where the plot reaches a crashing climax at the height of a terrific tropical rainstorm.

Acting honors are pretty evenly divided, for all of the players do excellent work. Florence Vidor and Jack Holt are stars.

Alamo No. 2.

Never was any motion picture more warmly appreciated by local audiences than "The Wedding Song," the new Cecil B. DeMille production starring Letitia Joyce which was shown at the Alamo No. 2 yesterday.

Finely staged, massive, excellently produced, and the characters artistically portrayed, the picture proved a winning success to finish.

There is also a very funny comedy on the same program. The entire program is first run in the city and will be shown Tuesday and Wednesday.

West End Theater.

"We Moderns," featuring Colleen Moore, is the attraction at the West End theater today. Colleen has never been so attractive nor so appealing as she is in this picture in the character of the modern jazz-mad maid in search of pleasure and excitement.

The scenes are laid in London and the story, adapted from Israel Zangwill's play of the same name, is typically English in setting and plot design.

The Agnes class of the West End Baptist church will present their annual minstrel at this theater Wednesday night, "Super Speed" will be Wednesday afternoon's picture.

Faces Hanging

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Chicago, Ill., May 24.—Russell Scott, former Canadian promoter, convicted murderer of Joseph Maurer, a drug clerk, who stood in his way during a robbery, arrived in Chicago this afternoon from the asylum for the criminal insane at Chestnut, Ill., and again is facing the gallows.

He escaped hanging via the "insanity" dodge, just a few hours before he was to be executed.

Tomorrow he will appear in the court of Judge Brothers on a writ of habeas corpus, the first step by State Attorney Robert E. Crowe to send him to the scaffold.

Last week a writ of habeas corpus was granted him and the decree of the court, at the time he was sent to Chestnut, was that if, at any time he regained his sanity, he was to be returned to Cook county and hanged.

Chauncey H. Jenkins, director of the state department of public welfare today denounced as absurd the story by Scott's wife and Scott's attorney that he had been offered a chance to escape prison for the payment of $5,000.

MAN SEVERELY HURT IN TRAFFIC WRECK

Dr. J. D. Patterson, 61, prominent physician of Millen, Ga., was probably fatally injured and D. F. Johnson, 24, of 59 North Howard street, Kirkwood, was badly bruised and shaken up in an automobile accident early Monday night.

The injured men were taken to Grady hospital in Blanchard Brothers' private ambulance.

According to information given to hospital attaches, the accident occurred on South Warren street when an automobile driven by Johnson, with Dr. Patterson as his guest, collided with an automobile said to have contained Carl and Will Foster, both of a South Warren street address. Hospital attaches were told that the Foster men rendered every possible assistance.

Both Fosters were reported to have been severely shaken up and bruised. Dr. Patterson had several deep lacerations on his head and doctors stated that he may have been seriously internally injured. Johnson was badly bruised about the abdomen and both his legs were bruised.

Dr. Patterson, well-known physician of Millen, Ga., has been in Atlanta several days.

No record of the accident had been filed at police station.

Mrs. J. H. Cohen, of 688 Greenleaf avenue, was severely shaken up and bruised when the automobile parked on Ponce de Leon avenue near Moreland and was struck from the rear by a light roadster said to belong to a local oil company, according to information given to Call Officers Olin Williams and Walter A. Good.

After the automobile crashed into the parked car, it recoiled across the street and into the opposite curbstone and was damaged considerably. Officers ordered the car sent to a local garage.

The driver of the car that crashed into the parked automobile was said to have been badly shaken up and was taken away from the scene of the accident before officers arrived. Inquiry is being made by police at the local hospital in an effort to locate the injured person.

DREDGE UNCOVERS BODY OF NATHAN WHO WOUNDED SON

New York, May 24.—(P)—A dredge in the North river today scooped up the body of Robert P. Norton, 65 years old, retired broker, who fled from his home April 3, last, after shooting his son in a quarrel over financial matters.

Weights tied to one of his wrists bore out the theory of suicide advanced by his family after the disappearance.

The quarrel with his son arose soon after the young man, also a stockbroker, had changed his name to Robert F. Norton. Robert was shot in the neck, but recovered.

CHORUS GIRL LOSES TO MOTHER IN FIGHT FOR LITTLE CHILD

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Kokomo, Ind., May 24.—John Marshall, judge of the Howard county circuit court, has ruled that Mrs. Audrey Altschaf, of Buffalo, N. Y., is entitled to the possession of her baby, Harold Robert, aged 20 months.

The hearing was on a writ of habeas corpus brought by Mrs. Altschaf against Lillian Brown, chorus girl. Miss Brown contested the action, saying that the mother had forfeited all right to the baby 13 months ago when she gave it to the defendant.

FUNERAL TODAY FOR MRS. E. B. ADAMS

Funeral services for Mrs. Eugene B. Adams, who died in Ironton, Ohio, Saturday night, after a prolonged illness, will be held today. Mrs. Reginald D. Paschall, of 57 Alhambra avenue, is Mrs. Adams, who has been at the bedside of her sister only returned to Atlanta last week, when her sister seemed to be so much better.

Mrs. Adams is survived by her husband, who is president of the Ironton and Russell Bridge company and former secretary of the Ironton Chamber of Commerce; three sons, Mrs. Reginald D. Paschall, Mrs. Charles M. Goodman, of Orlando, Fla

MASHERS MUST GO, SAYS DR. WILLIAMS

At a meeting in the Henry Grady club Monday afternoon, the Henry Grady club was formally and enthusiastically launched. Representative citizens who were associates and admirers of the famous journalist participated in the organization.

Colonel Walter R. Brown presided. A constitution and rules of order were adopted. Officers for the ensuing year elected, as follows:

President, Walter R. Brown; honorary vice presidents, Clark Howell, editor of The Constitution; Major John S. Cohen, editor of The Journal, and Colonel James B. Nevin, editor of the Georgian-American; active vice presidents, Dr. Sam W. Small and Dr. Joseph Jacobs; secretary, James L. Logan; executive secretary, Miss Alice Wilson; treasurer, Colonel William Lawson Peel; historian, John M. Graham.

The executive committee is composed of the active officers and Peyton H. Snook, Edmund W. Martin, Henry H. Cahan, and others. The club will immediately interest itself in the higher civic activities that once claimed the enthusiasm of him whose name it bears.

Chicago, May 24.—(AP)—For permitting customers to use liquor from their own flasks three downtown night clubs were named in temporary injunctions granted today at the instance of federal prohibition agents opening an announced drive on "pour your own" liquor law violation.

Chicago, May 24.—(AP)—The world's first "Little Red School House" of golf, where players may receive instruction; free today installed a "professor" of golf and began to matriculate students. The primary class will be called for "recitation" tomorrow at 10 o'clock by Stewart Cowper, formerly of Detroit.

The golf school, announced some time ago by Anton Cermak, president of the Cook county commissioners, will be held at the Edgebrook free links in the forest preserve, operated by the county. The forest preserve now contains four 18-hole courses and the commissioners arranged the school to make those who use the golf grounds more efficient in progressing around the links. The college will help them to save unnecessary abuse of the turf and to keep moving, so that the game will not be delayed unduly.

The first lesson will be in fundamentals of the game, golf etiquette and the method of play. Other courses will provide advanced instruction to those who have already played golf. It is planned to open more of the schools later.

Washington, May 24.—(AP)—A dispatch from Sapporo, Hokkaido, to the Tokyo Nichiichi today reports that 2,000 farmers are missing as the result of an eruption of a long extinct volcano in the mountains of Tokachi province, Central Hokkaido.

The same dispatch reports that 2,000 farmers were driven to take refuge in the hills by the overflowing of the River Kametsu, owing to the eruption.

There were three explosions of the volcano yesterday, each carrying huge quantities of rocks and lava and causing numerous landslides.

One village is reported to have been wiped out by a flood of water and lava, 200 of the inhabitants being buried.

Chairman Green, of the committee, expects little opposition on the floor, but a long and bitter fight is in prospect in the senate.

Men Held in Alleged Cobb County Gambling House Released on Bond

Marietta, Ga., May 24.—(Special.) Jack Lance, alleged proprietor of the luxuriously furnished gambling house raided by Sheriff Tom Sanders Saturday night, was released from the Cobb county jail late today by posting $1,000 bond. Friends from Atlanta came for him. He will face trial here at the July term of court.

County officers went about the removal of all gambling devices from the house Monday. Lance maintained that the house was not a gambling den, but that it was a rendezvous for a bunch of "good fellows" to have barbecues and fish fries, a place where they could be to themselves.

He states that some gambling was done, but that the sliding peep holes in the doors and heavy shutters to the windows were put there merely to assure secrecy. He states that a professional "boum" had been employed to keep down drinking and disorder. He says that the several devices found on the premises were "innocent games."

Lance is a married man and lives at 30 Moreland avenue, Atlanta, according to his statement. He states he is engaged in the circus business, and is located only temporarily in Atlanta. Ten men were arrested and were released upon payment of bond. Two escaped.

Every precaution had been made to assure secrecy and the house was equipped with lights and other conveniences, even a large radio had been installed. The house was on a small lot on the Marietta to the Pace Ferry road.

Pre-Nuptial Pact Revealed In Alimony Suit Hearing

HUSBAND SPENT $40,000 BUT HAD NO LATCH KEY

New York, May 24.—A strange pre-nuptial agreement, whereby it was claimed Percy K. Hudson, wealthy stock broker, agreed not to come to his wife's apartment, except at her invitation, came to light today during argument in supreme court on Mrs. Elizabeth C. Hudson's application for $30,000 a year alimony.

Mrs. Hudson, Hungarian film beauty, who was married to the broker last November, filed suit for a separation on March 19.

Restating her alimony application, Max D. Steiner, attorney for Hudson, told Justice Guy today that Hudson had been a husband in name only.

"The plaintiff," Mr. Steiner said, "as a condition of marrying this defendant compelled him to enter into a contract agreeing to live with her only if and when she desired his company. The defendant spent $40,000 furnishing an apartment for the plaintiff and he doesn't have so much as a latchkey to that apartment."

Steiner said that when Mrs. Hudson gave a dinner party recently she invited her husband as one of the guests before whom, she charges, Hudson attacked her. Steiner says that when Hudson objected to the party lasting into the early hours of the morning, his wife slapped his face and attempted to strike him with a knife.

Mrs. Hudson claims her husband has an income of $150,000 a year.

DEPUTIES FIND BATHING SUIT OF EVANGELIST

Los Angeles, May 24.—Mystery was added to the disappearance of Almerie Temple McPherson Monday when deputy sheriffs announced the discovery of the famous evangelist's bathing suit in her automobile.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Dewar said he found the bathing suit, a green rubber cap, silk stockings and red rubber slippers used by Mrs. McPherson when she stepped into the surf at Venice last Tuesday.

Dewar admitted that no effort had been made before to search the car which had been parked by the evangelist at the beach.

Authorities admitted that the find presented a new angle to the disappearance which they were at a loss to explain.

Whittemore Trial Pictures Result in Contempt Case

Baltimore, Md., May 24.—(AP)—Duty to readers and to employers takes precedence over orders of the court, Harold Ellison, managing editor of The Baltimore News, told Justice Eugene O'Dunne today during his trial for contempt of court in connection with the taking and publication of pictures of the Ripstein case.

Whittemore murder trial last week. Mr. Ellison, with Managing Editor Earl S. Deland, of The Baltimore American; Harry Clark, city editor of The News, and two photographers were cited after pictures were taken and published in both papers despite the order.

The Law of the Talon

By Louis Tracy

SYNOPSIS

Jim Parks, Hudson Bay company's agent at Moose Lake, is greatly disturbed by a new line in an English paper announcing the coming marriage of Alistair Spence-Panton to Ellen Grant, a girl of the same name as the late presumptive Lord Oban. The Spence-Panton family, however, had disappeared some years before and the girl was about to be presumed by law. Parks decides to leave Moose Lake and go back to England.

Arriving at Edmonton he tells Mr. Leslie, the temporary head of the Hudson Bay company that he is John Bridgforth Panton, Leslie's daughter, is a sympathetic listener to the tale and she encourages her father to help young Panton. In the meantime, Ellen Grant is married in London to Alistair Panton. Immediately after the ceremony she learns that John Panton is alive and is on his way to England to claim an inheritance left him by his aunt, Lord Oban John Panton's father, tells Ellen that his son had been dismissed from the army for cowardice under fire and Alistair as planned, but she tells him that she will not live with him as his wife until the matter about John is settled to her satisfaction. Ellen goes off to Liverpool with John, accompanied by his dog, Spot, and arrives in England. He carries a letter of introduction to Mr. Leslie's brother, a lawyer living at Wimbledon. The Leslies invite him to stay with them and he accepts their hospitality.

INSTALLMENT XIV. A HAPPY ENCOUNTER.

In the white heat of the hour John also sent a brief line to Lord Oban. Beginning "Dear father," he passed at once into his subject.

"I have just heard from that skunk, Alistair, who wants me to meet him in London. Although I traveled six thousand miles for that specific purpose, I trust most sincerely now that I may not run across him. There has been enough scandal in the family already that I, at least, should be willing to avoid more, so I do not wish to be charged with Alistair's manslaughter, if that is what the blotting out of such a rotter would be called.

"It is pitiful, of course, that I may leave home again without seeing you, but your decision of seven years ago must stand, and I yet have no word that you have changed your mind. I bear you no malice. Why should I? It is you who have cause to be aggrieved. But I must enter a solemn protest against your action and Colonel Grant's in forcing Ellen to marry a reptile like Alistair. If I am wrong in this assumption, if you had no hand in it, I ask, as a last favor, that you will take some means of letting me know the facts. Time has seared the old sores. It would be cheerful to have your assurance that there are no new ones."

Then, thinking to walk off the ill-humor induced by his cousin's letter, he whistled up Spot from the garden, left word for Mrs. Leslie that he would not be in for lunch, and strode off across the Common Londonwards. In two hours he was passing the Oval, where a cricket match was in progress. He was tempted to drop in, if only for the sake of old times, but Spot might not be admitted, so he went on, crossing the Thames by Vauxhall bridge. Growing tired of pavements he made for St. James park, explaining to Spot that if a cat might look at a king a dog might certainly look at a king's palace.

Thus far the pace had been a good four miles an hour. Now he took things more easily. He was aware, of course, that his companion attracted much attention. It amused him to realize that not one person in a hundred thousand met that day could determine what sort of a dog this was. Probably most people regarded Spot as a new and large size type of Chow.

Two men, in particular, coming down the Mall from St. James palace, were greatly taken by him, and, naturally enough, glanced from the dog to his master. Recognition was instantaneous by all three. Panton knew that these were Sir Arthur Frensham and Captain Bathurst, both of the guards, and, as he expected, after a look of blank amazement, they cut him dead.

At least, he thought so. A flush darkened his face and his eyes swam. Of course, this very thing was bound to happen, but it was none the less bearable for all that. So he did not hear one of the two running after him until he was roused from a stupor of wrath by the low growl with which Spot warned him of a stranger's nearness. Be it remembered they had passed thousands of people that day, yet this was the first time the dog gave tongue. Evidently, therefore, Spot was aware that this hurrying person wanted speech of his master.

It was Sir Arthur, red and rather flustered, but impulsive as ever. "Dash it all, Johnnie, isn't that you?" he cried, holding out his hand. "I was told you were in town, but I could hardly believe my eyes when I looked at you just now."

"Your eyes have not deceived you, Sir Arthur," said Panton grimly, and quietly ignoring that outstretched hand. "Don't let me detain you. I see Bathurst is waiting."

"Let him jolly well wait, or, better still, hook it," and the baronet waved his friend on. "I haven't seen you for donkey's years, and I've been wanting all the time to have a word with you. If I knew where to write I'd have sent you a line. The devil take you, aren't you going to shake a paw?"

Panton could not resist that. Their hands met.

"It's good of you, Arthur," he said, "but not wise, you know. It's even a trifle hard on me."

"That be blown for a tale! Hello, what's this?"

Spot, hearing a familiar phrase, wanted to be included in the hand-shaking, too.

That broke the ice more effectively than any spoken word. Sir Arthur seemed to be genuinely glad to see his old friend and brother officer, and certainly did not mean to part from him after a mere exchange of civilities.

"Look here," he rattled on, after Spot had been properly introduced, "let's go and have a bite somewhere, not in one of the clubs, which is sure to be crowded, but some quiet place. How about the Carlton grill?"

Panton laughed at Frensham's definition of one of the most popular restaurants in London. Moreover, he fully appreciated the tact which excluded the service clubs.

"I admit I can eat right through any ordinary menu," he said, "having just walked in from Wimbledon, but the third member of the party has to be considered. Can't we find some small French cafe in Soho? I have almost forgotten my London, but Old Compton street can't be far."

"Just a cook's stride. Let me lead. But how about this noble fellow? Won't he get rattled in a crowd?"

"Not a bit. I really believe that Spot does not look on all these people as real. He was astounded at first. Now he disregards them entirely."

"Well, well. Tell me all about it. Where have you been? In northwest Canada, some paper had it. Why on earth should any one want to live there?" Panton laughed again.

"You haven't changed a scrap, Arthur," he said.

"Northern Alberta gave me a home and a rough sort of welcome when I badly wanted both. Never mind me. Talk about yourself. A major by this time, I suppose?"

"Do I look it? No, my lad. I got my captaincy and then sent in my papers. I'm running a special line of Berkshire pigs in the jolly old home park. Must do something, you know, to pay taxes. I keep Borzoi and Alsatians, too. Wish I had something to mate with that husky of yours. By gad, I'd start a new class in the Kennel club."

Frensham's lively chatter was the pleasantest thing Panton had listened to this many a year. It brought back the old happy-go-lucky days when the lights were bright and there was no thought of the morrow so long as a man knew his job and did it. For a little space he allowed himself to forget. He talked freely. It was ridiculously easy to tell of the glories of the west northwest about dwelling too strenuously on his own complete detachment from the world. Oddly enough, the rather feather-brained baronet was the first to touch on a difficult topic.

They had reached the coffee and cigarette stage of an excellent lunch, and were isolated in a boarded compartment of a Soho restaurant when Sir Arthur said suddenly:

"We must meet again, Johnnie, and have a longer confab, but I've a date at Tattersall's for 4 o'clock, and just now I want to say something serious. It's about that rotten business at Lille. . . . No, don't get shifty, old top. This is important. You didn't have a square deal, and it ought to be inquired into, even after all these years. I know what I'm talking about. I was in that show, and got mine. Couldn't do much as recognize a glass of beer when it was held to my lips for weeks afterwards. Well, you remember—or do you remember?—it was a fine morning but misty when the whistles blew, and we went over. Of course, I knew nothing of what was happening elsewhere, but your company is next to mine on the right, and we dropped in for a hefty counter attack after we had gone about 400 yards. We had to fall back, and reform, and the lie of the land brought us over the ground your company had crossed."

THE GUMPS—THE ROYAL FAMILY

MY ANCESTRY—THAT'S ONE THING I CAN BRAG ABOUT—WE DIDN'T SPRING FROM A FAMILY OF TUMBLE-WEEDS—YOU DARE SAY ANYTHING ABOUT MY PEOPLE—MY GREAT GRANDFATHER WAS ONE OF THE LEADERS OF THE BOSTON TEA PARTY—I CAN TRACE OF THE BACK FOR GENERATIONS AND GENERATIONS AND YOU'LL NOT FIND ONE BLACK SHEEP—

SAY, LISTEN TO THIS—I WANT TO READ YOU A FEW FACTS—FOR YOU TO BE BORN YOU HAD TO HAVE A FATHER AND MOTHER—THAT'S TWO HUMAN BEINGS—EACH OF THEM HAD A FATHER AND A MOTHER—THAT MAKES FOUR MORE—SO ON WE GO BACK TO THE BEGINNING OF THE CHRISTIAN ERA—THE FIGURES PROVE THAT 139,235,017,489,534,976 BIRTHS MUST HAVE TAKEN PLACE TO BRING YOU INTO THIS WORLD—THEY WERE ALL YOUR ANCESTORS—

NOW, LISTEN MIN—MAN TO MAN—YOU KNOW—YOU'RE NOT TALKING TO A STRANGER—OUT OF ALL THOSE 139,235,017,489,534,976 ANCESTORS OF YOURS THERE MUST HAVE BEEN ONE—JUST A WEE LITTLE TINY BIT—WELL, MIGHT I SAY, THAT WASN'T HITTING ON ALL SIX—AT LEAST THERE WAS ONE WITHERED LEAF ON THAT GREAT FAMILY TREE OF YOURS—

MOON MULLINS—TRUE LOVE

SAY, EMMY—IT JUST OCCURRED TO ME THAT MAYBE YOUR BOYFRIEND WAS GETTING COLD FEET ON THIS ENGAGEMENT BUSINESS AND THAT HE'S WRITING YOU THESE POISON PEN LETTERS ABOUT HISSELF SO YOU'LL BREAK IT OFF WITHOUT ONE OF YOUR BREACH OF PROMISE SUITS.

THE VERY IDEA! WHY I'VE GOT A NOTION TO HAVE BENJAMIN SMACK YOUR FACE FOR EVEN THINKING SUCH A THING, MOON MULLINS.

RIDICULOUS! STILL—BENJAMIN ONLY GAVE ME TWELVE ORANGES WHEN I ORDERED A DOZEN AND WINKED AT HIM AT THE STORE TODAY. HA HA—BUT THAT'S SO SILLY.

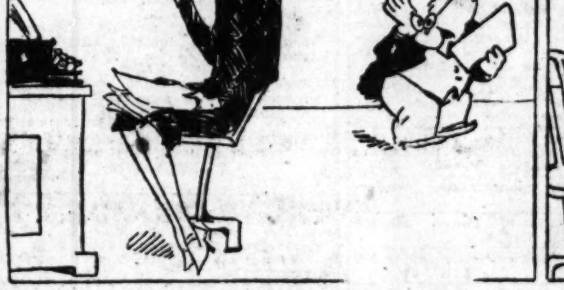

PERHAPS IT'S ONLY MY IMAGINATION BUT IT DID SEEM TO ME THAT HE HAD A FUNNY LOOK IN HIS EYES WHEN I CAUGHT HIM COMPARING EGYPT'S AND MY PHOTOGRAPHS TO-DAY—HMM—I WONDER—

SOMEBODY'S STENOG—Soft Voices of the Evening

THE BOSS IS CRAZY! HE'S GOT MY WORK ALL CONFUSED! I HOPE ALL HIS RABBITS DIE!

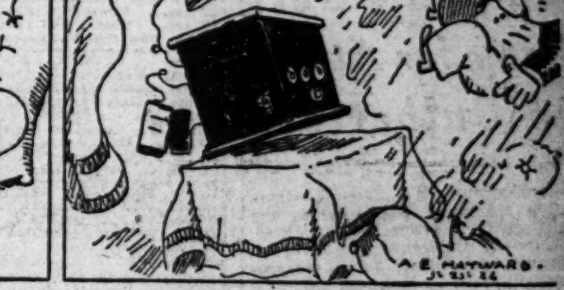

I HEARD THAT! NOW LISTEN! ONE MORE CRACK ABOUT ME HAVING RABBITS AND YOU'RE FIRED—I THINK I'LL FOLKS TO THINK I'M A BABY—I DON'T—A KEEP RABBITS. IT ALL AINT GOT ANY MEANING.

OH, IS THAT YOU, BOSS? I'M GOING TO TELL YOU—I'M GOING TO SING OVER THE RADIO TONIGHT!

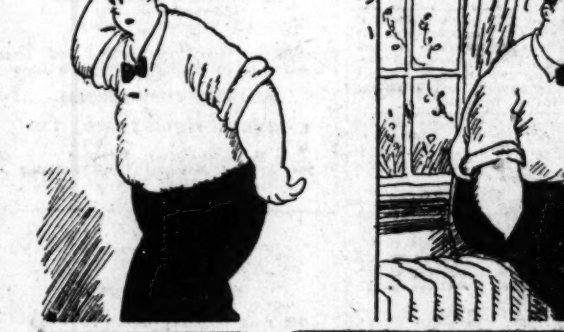

DEAR FRIENDS OF RADIO LAND: MISS CAMILLE O'FLAGE WILL NOW SING THAT TOUCHING BALLAD ENTITLED—

GASOLINE ALLEY—THERE, THAT'S SETTLED

HECTOR IS OUT AS BEST MAN. PHYLLIS DIDN'T LIKE HIM AND WOULDN'T TELL ME WHY. SHE SAID SHE DIDN'T LIKE THE WAY HE LOOKED AT HER.

I'VE GOT TO GET SOMEBODY ELSE. MORTON FLUSTER WOULD BE O.K. IF HE'D DO IT, BUT HE'S SO BASHFUL I'M AFRAID HE'D BALK. I'LL ASK HIM TO LUNCH.

BUT WAIT! I'D BE SO MORTIFIED I WOULDN'T KNOW HOW TO ACT!

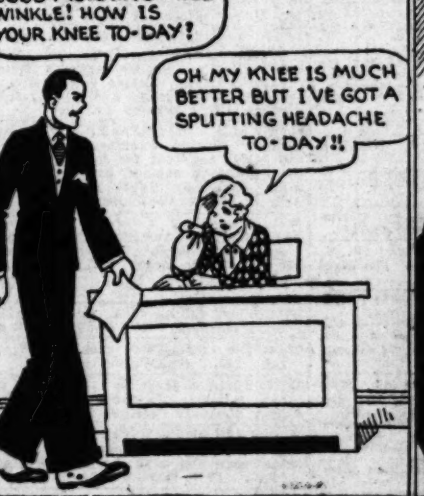

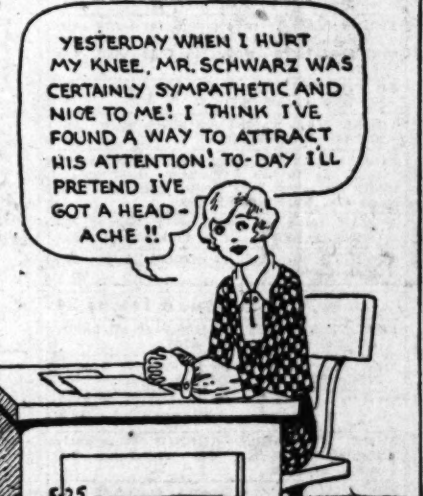

OH THAT'S ALL RIGHT. I'LL KEEP YOU COMPANY. I'LL BE SO SCARED YOU'LL LOOK LIKE RICHARD THE LION HEARTED.

"Bathtub Girl" Will Tell Joyce Hawley Ready To Take Stand Jury Story of Bath Today

New York, May 24.—(AP)—Joyce Hawley, reputed bathtub girl of Earl Carroll's birthday party, will take the stand tomorrow at resumption of the theatrical producer's trial for perjury. Carroll is charged with having committed perjury before two grand juries investigating the party at his theater, at which it had been reported that men guests were served liquor by Miss Hawley while she was sitting undressed in a bathtub full of wine.

The producer told the grand jurors that no liquor was served at the party and that no one got in, fell in, or was pushed into a bathtub. Numerous witnesses since the trial started, several of them newspaper men, have testified that Miss Hawley sat in the tub without clothing and served drinks from the liquor in which she was immersed, after Carroll himself had helped her in and announced that "the line forms on this side."

Among four witnesses to testify today was Dorothy Gordon, until recently a Carroll showgirl and the first woman witness to take the stand. She testified that she loaned her cape to Carroll and saw him shield Miss Hawley with it as she walked across the stage and got into the tub.

Robert B. Coleman, dramatic editor of the Mirror, today completed testimony begun last week. His presence on the stand was marked by clashes between him and the defense.

THE NEW THOMAS DOUBLE SPEED MOWER
The new Thomas Double Speed Mower is the only mower made with two-speed transmission. In the regular speed the knife is driven forty-four movements by one turn of the ground wheels, in the high speed it is driven fifty-four movements. All ordinary cutting can be done with the regular speed, and when an unusually heavy piece of grass is encountered, the high speed enables the mower to cut it without difficulty. If the knife becomes dull, the high speed enables the mower to continue when an ordinary mower would choke up.

OFFICE WAGERS IN TEXAS SCORED

Dallas, Texas, May 24.—(AP)—Charging that the highest offices within the gift of the people of Texas had been placed upon the plane of a "crap game," Lynch Davidson, well-known financier and lumberman and gubernatorial candidate, has issued a statement scoring the Ferguson-Moody campaign wagers.

In his opening campaign speech Saturday Governor Miriam A. Ferguson declared that if Attorney General Dan Moody, also a candidate for governor, leads her one vote in the primary she would resign immediately. Moody would resign if she led him 25,000 votes. Moody countered with an acceptance in an address at San Antonio Saturday night, warning "Mr." 25,000-vote margin.

Jim Ferguson, proxy-governor, offers to bet the office of governor against the office of attorney general. Davidson epitomized the challenge and its acceptance.

The honor and dignity of these two great offices insulted and disgraced by their incumbents to a degree that brings the blush of shame to every decent and right-thinking citizen in this state, Davidson declared.

In his acceptance of "Mr." challenge, Moody explained: "I want to bet the public offices of Texas are not to be wagered or bartered away or otherwise disposed of than is provided in the constitution and in the popular will. But this campaign is an issue between Fergusonism and the rights of the people. So eager am I to rid Texas of everything they stand for, that I accept the challenge issued by Jim Ferguson in his wife's name."

Mr. Ferguson wins the wager, Davidson said in his statement, will win double by keeping the office.
